The lively laughter of the Lord
His tears, his talk, his tasks;
His black and dark, his white;
But never in the lively laugh
That comes from his eyes
Though we may look through all
The laughter of the Lord.
I know He laughed a lively laugh
In the days of old
By fancy still from frolic till
He came on earth
I know He laughed at boasts and brags
And at blunders, wayside blunders,
That nodded near His knees;
I know He laughed His love;
Who said and did such thoughtless
But loved Him more than thoughtless
I wish that one who walked with Him
And wrote down each word
Had written in His record, too,
The laughter of the Lord.

PATERNALISM EXPERIMENT
The Mercury is inclined to agree with the Courier-Journal in its statement that Nicholas' proposed bill is "an unbecoming"
The bill is one that administers paternalism in government and will be a failure in the long run.
The starting ground of the tendency to paternalism in government is the feeling that the government is the parent of the people.

A VALUABLE INSTITUTION
The Mercury regards the Nicholas County Building and Savings Association, which closed its first year Monday, as one of the most valuable institutions in Nicholas county.
The building is a fine structure, and the association has a large membership.
