FARMERS—Let us grind your limestone now. The first rain forms a crust on the pile, shedding the water. It will keep all winter and be ready to spread next spring and the best time for its value. Rates reasonable. Honest weights. This is a Nichols county farm outfit. We have ground hundreds of tons for Nicholas county farmers. Through the bringing of this outfit to the county small amounts of limestone have been ground that could not have been secured by our farmers, except at prohibitive prices. Because of this, the owners of the machinery have not yet been able to pay off the debt on their investment. Patronize a concern that has ground stone on your home farms in Nicholas county, preferably at a less because of the small cost, by giving us your rock to grind. Call Warren Fisher, at Mercury office, or Russell Sugg, Carlisle.

The Turn of The Tide

FRED M. VINSON

(Cynthiana Democrat.)

It is a pleasure as well as a privilege for the people to support Hon. Fred M. Vinson for Congress, and that he will receive a tremendous majority in November county next month goes almost without the saying. Mr. Vinson's record and recommends him to voters regardless of party. Honest and there is no doubt he will receive a considerable number of votes of Republicans and all of the votes of Independents.

The people like a clean clear-cut man, a Representative who really is a Representative and gets things done. Just completing his second full term in the House Mr. Vinson's record is extraordinary. From the very start he was recognized as a man of unusual ability and in but a short time was placed on committees and given responsibilities that have required years of service for other men to attain. During his first term he was placed on the Military Affairs committee, and at the beginning of his second term—a position he prized one—was made the most powerful committee of all—Appropriations. These distinctions are extraordinary, and that he advanced so soon from one to the other shows how strongly were his worth and influence felt by his fellow members. In each assignment he gave an account of himself that called for highest commendation on all sides, and augers for still further advancement and opportunities for service.

His record in Congress is spotless. He actively supported the immigration bill, the soldiers' bonus bill, the child labor bill, the tobacco bill, the flood control bill, and in fact every bill that had merit in it and was fashioned for the relief of the people. He helped defeat the million-dollar appropriation for a memorial hospital in Kentucky, was active to secure the appropriation of two million dollars for restoration of lands, and relief in Kentucky devastated by floods and gave unstinted support to many other bills of importance to his district, state and nation.

He knows Congress. He is acquainted with the methods of getting things done, he knows how to secure the most unanswerable problems that come before a president, and is splendidly equipped for service that a new man could not hope to command. For this reason, with many others, the people of the district will see that he succeeds himself.

There seems to be finer gentleman than Mr. Vinson. He has friends by the thousands all over the district and everywhere one goes he knows. A young man of the highest rank, the very epitome of honor and integrity are limitless, and these he shall have further scope for exercise of his talents the people of the district will see are fully determined. If for no other reason than that Kentucky's delegation of the district should go to the polls on November 6 and vote for return of Fred M. Vinson to Congress.

EATS HIS WORDS

In supporting Mr Hoover for the presidency Senator Borah must eat his words regularly. He has eaten a number himself—for no one has denounced Mr Hoover more bitterly.

In 1919 he said in the Senate in denouncing Mr. Hoover's food administration:

"Three of the vast monopolies which control food in this country have with relation to their commodities practically controlled the administration since its organization.

"He said in reference to the profits permitted these monopolies:

"The profits under Mr. Hoover amounted to all the way from 20 to 40 per cent. for the last two years."

He said further:

"No man who has such perverted views of decency should be intrusted with unlimited power to deal with $100,000,000."

The Senator's reference to a man with perverted views of decency was aimed at Hoover. He repeated in the Senate a letter protesting against Hoover's appointment to the food job and with this notation:

"I shall be glad to send any proof to this gentleman you may suggest."

Prior to supporting Mr. Hoover the Senator is reported every conservative principle for which he has ever stood for, including the right and the election of a man for whom he maintains he has no admiration as an individual.

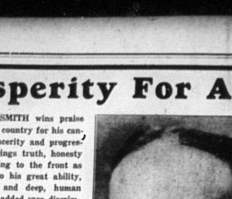
Prosperity For ALL!

GOVERNOR SMITH wins praise all over the country for his candor, courage, sincerity and progressiveness. He brings truth, honesty and square dealing to the front as living issues. To his great ability, vast experience and deep, human understanding is added rare discrimination and a keen sense of responsibility. He is free from guile. His life is clean, wholesome and simple. He goes into battle rejoicing, self-reliant and with song and humor in his heart—Truly "A Happy Warrior."

Governor Smith believes in the intelligence and the honesty of the masses of the people . . . they are always his court of last resort . . . every time a great issue arises he naturally goes to the people themselves for guidance and support. He never appeals to their passions or unworthy ambitions. He goes straight to their head and heart. He is one of the few great leaders of masses in all history who does not stoop to the tactics of the demagogue.

Inspired by such leadership Democrats of Kentucky and the Nation are sweeping on to a glorious victory on November 6!



GOVERNOR ALFRED E. SMITH FOR PRESIDENT

I shall never advocate nor approve any law which directly or indirectly destroys the return of the values. Governor Smith

RELIGIOUS TOLERANCE

"Let us remember that the Constitution of the United States prohibits any religious test as a qualification for office. Governor Smith's position on this question is unassailable, and his declaration is in accord with the highest American ideals."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

LIVING DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES

"Governor Smith has been living Democratic principles for a long time. He has had opportunities to do so which have been denied to Democrats in many states. Democrats should not be content with merely voting for Governor Smith. They should make the election of Governor Smith the occasion for living Democratic principles and for electing a Democratic ticket."—Louisville Herald-Post.

CHAMPIONS FARMER'S CAUSE

"Governor Smith has championed the cause of the farmer as no other candidate for the presidency has done. He has made a study of the farm problem and has a definite program for relief. He has pledged himself to do all in his power to put into effect the principle of equality for agriculture with other industries
