CONGRESS SEATS

Republicans have established clear majorities in the next Congress in both House and Senate, but have failed to keep full pace with the record-breaking sweep of Herbert Hoover.

Almost complete returns show that the new Congress, going into office after next March 4, would be divided as follows: Senate—Republicans, 50; Democrats, 46; Farm-Labor, one; vacant, one. House—Republicans, 207; Democrats, 227; Farm-Labor, one.

Republicans held all of their 13 Senate seats in the eastern section, and captured seven of the 23 Democratic positions at stake. The Senate is now composed of 54 Democrats.

In the House election with all 435 seats involved, Republican gains of 27 places now held by Democrats, and replacement of Victor Berger, Socialist, Wisconsin, and one of the two Farmer-Labor members, William L. Carss, of Minnesota. Democrats succeeded in capturing three seats now held by the G. O. P. in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and West Virginia.

MAN TO BE HANGED ON WOMAN'S CHARGE

Raleigh County, 29 years old, convicted of a statutory offense against Mrs. Ted Cook, wife of Mills Cook, county, two years ago and given a death sentence by the Raleigh circuit court, last week was sentenced to be hanged December 14. An appeal was granted and the court overruled a motion by Cook for a change of venue. Cudgel had been in jail since the time during the summer but Mrs. Cook's testimony, in which she named farmers for losses on silos at every place she had set her foot, was never given quite fighting they fought from start to finish. The jury say the spirit that is reflected in the verdict though they were offended.

Complaint was made by Mrs. Cook upon down on the Ohio will come to Nicholas County tonight for a fortnight's bunch of football players whose nom de guerre is Manchester. Beginning Nov. 16 at Jacksons Bowl at 2:45 p. m. This will mark the first appearance of Covington on a Carlisle field. Carlisle has not allowed their goal line to be crossed at least this year, but will have to give their all to keep the strong northern team at bay. Covington took the strong Hughes High of Cincinnati to a 6 to 6 tie not long ago. Carlisle has also held the strong Newport teams in the Queen City. True, the Covington team defeated Newport 12 to 12 but that game was played in a sea of mud and a rain almost under those conditions is not a true test of everything. The game will without a doubt be the best game ever staged in Carlisle and a record breaking crowd is on hand. Every seat will be reserved and it is thinking this good team to our city. Please refrain from interference on the railroad, it may give you a cold and if some don't help the Athletic Association.

Born and raised in Burnside, Pulaski County, the young Kentucky author went to New York early in life and began a small career as a free lance speaking stage. As she grew in experience she was given important parts in some very well known plays, one being written being Maurine Watkin's famous crime play, Chicago.

After several years she abandoned the stage for short story writing for which she has a decided talent, having sold several stories and now has a contract to sell all she can write.

CARLISLE SWAMPS MAYSVILLE 30-0

Local Team Wins One-Sided Game In Final Conference Tilt Covington Here Friday

(By John Parker Ross)

Coach Walker realized one of his cherished ambitions last Friday when the Musketeers led by Capt. Clark defeated Maysville at Maysville by a score of 30 to 0, in the season's final conference game.

The result was never in doubt. Maysville never getting near the goal line at any time. Carlisle made 17 first downs to 1 for Maysville, and had against the second team to a first yard pass in the last few seconds of the game. It was again the drive and speed of the Musketeer backfield, combined with the great work of the Big Green line that spelled disaster for the bulldogs. Clark, Payne and Conley are through the Gold and White line like meteors time after time for long gains, and Barnett the other back twisted the ends and ripped off tackle for gains almost at will. All these backs starred in the game but the substance of the line and other backs in turning great interference. When the time comes for the selection of the 1928 Musketeer eleven Carlisle should have a number of players mentioned for without a doubt they have the greatest backfield combination that has scored bushy of teams, to say nothing of Curry at end, Kenny at tackle and last, but not least, Durham at guard. Clarke and Payne cannot be left off line to their steady all around game the entire season.

Carlisle took to Maysville In the first part of the first quarter Clark received the kick-off and by fine interference the ball was carried to the Maysville 40 yard line. Clark and Payne hit the line for three consecutive first downs in succession, bringing the ball to the 17 yard line. Clark then hit the center of the Maysville line for a yard and Payne tucked the extra point. With the last quarter just beginning Clark and Payne left tackle 12 yards for his third touch of the game and Payne added the extra point. Shortly after Lockhart intercepted a pass from behind his own goal line and ran it back to the 40 yard line. Clark and Payne carried the ball to the 17 yard line and Carlisle scored a safety. Two minutes before the end of the game Barnett center for the last marker and Clark kicked the extra point. Maysville was never in the game at any time during the contest but Manager Ellis Walker started two full lines of players for losers on also at every play but let us tell you how Maysville's defense was fighting they fought from start to finish. Every player say the spirit that is reflected in the team though they were offeated

Carlisle made 17 first downs to Maysville's 1. Carlisle made 11 yards on penalties to Maysville's 40.

OLD SOLDIER IS ROBBED OF $60, PENSION MONEY

William Peet, probably the only negro Confederate soldier living in central Kentucky, was held up by two negro thugs at Paris Tuesday night and robbed of his pension money amounting to about $60. Peet, who is 90 years old, had cashed his pension and was en route to the home of President Silas E. Bedford, of the Peoples Deposit bank, where he is employed, when he was robbed.

Peet, who is well known throughout central Kentucky, was the personal cook and bodyguard of General John Wheeler throughout the war, joining the Confederate army with General Wheeler at the outbreak of hostilities. He is now the last surviving member of all of the battalion meets of the old soldiers and is known to almost every surviving Confederate veteran.

CLEAN UP THE RUBBISH

Fall leaves and dried vegetation cause our front lawns and back yards to become unsightly. Rubbish hidden by luxurious growth, during the summer months, now presents itself in distasteful disorder. Do not allow your weeds and rubbish to accumulate, presenting an unattractive appearance and serving as a fire hazard. Clean up now and you will not only improve the appearance of your own property but will be doing the community an important service.

Spring is the normal time for cleaning up and painting up, but we believe it is a good idea not to wait until then to start the job. It will mean less work in the spring. If we clean up our property in the fall, and it will present a much better appearance during the bleak months of winter. Do your part to make your community as attractive as you can, for what benefits the community, will proportionately benefit you.

U. S. HAS BUMPER OAT CROP

Notwithstanding the market reduction in horse population the farmers are producing vast crops of oats. This year's production of oats is estimated at 1,463,966,000 bushels in the United States. This crop record has been exceeded only a few times in the history of American farming. It is 260,825,000 bushels higher than the production of 1927.

The oats crop seems to fit an completely into the rotation plans of many farmers that they are slow to abandon the crop of forage to some other crop, notwithstanding the prevailing low prices.

TROUSERS BURNED UP

J. L. Barnett Loses Trousers, Watch And Money.

Former Governor Edwin P. Morrow, the unfortunate bursting of whose pajamas in a Louisville hotel a few years ago resulted in wide notoriety for "Howey," had nothing on J. L. Barnett, local contractor and builder.

In the early hours of the morning last Friday Mr. Barnett was awakened by the stifling odor of smoke in his room. A burned investigation revealed the smouldering ruins of his trousers near his bed. Eleven dollars in paper money, a pocket book and belt were burned up and a valuable gold watch and chain were ruined.

Mr. Barnett, who has been in ill health, frequently smokes during the night, and it is presumed that he either dropped a lighted cigarette, sparks from a cigarette or a match on his trousers.

CHAPMAN IS BEATEN BY BIGGEST TOTAL

Complete Election Returns Also Show A Large Majority

Anslad Vinson

Completed official returns from the November 6 election in Congressional Districts show that Virgil Chapman, Democratic nominee in the Seventh, has the highest majority of any candidate of his party who polled a Democratic majority. Robert Blackburn, Republican, defeated Chapman by 1,663 majority. Fred M. Vinson, Louisa, Democratic nominee in the Ninth, lost to Ira B. Kendall, Republican, by 3,593.

Mr. Chapman's showing, as compared with that of Governor Morrow, was unexpected, since his district has hitherto given larger majorities than any other in the group of six that went to the Republicans.

Mr. Vinson's defeat by a big vote was little less surprising. The big majorities piled up against Democratic nominees in the Third, Fourth, Sixth and Eighth districts by Henry DeHaven Moorman, Brent Spence and Ralph Gilbert made better showings than Mr. Chapman or Mr. Vinson.

Official returns, with a few counties unofficial, indicate that Mr. Gilbert, in the Eighth district, will be the highest of the Democrats in the face of a heavy vote against the Democratic presidential ticket. The Eighth gave Hoover a majority of 11,000, while Mr. Gilbert came within 1,890 of being elected. Judge L. L. Walker, Republican.

THREE LOSE LIVES IN FLOOD IN STATE

1,000 Homeless As Two Rivers Rampage In Eastern Part Of Kentucky

GREAT PROPERTY LOSS

Three men have lost their lives, more than 1,000 people have been driven from their homes and property damage estimated at $250,000 caused by flood waters of the Cumberland and Kentucky rivers this week, heavy rains of Sunday and Monday put the rivers out of their banks. The Cumberland river has caused the most damage. Bell, Harlan and Pike counties being the counties hardest hit.

The three victims of the flood were swept to their death in Bell county, the flood waters about sixteen miles from Pineville in Bell county. They were Lawrence Miles, Melvin Tatton and C. S. Boyle, all employes of the Virginia-Harlan Coal Corporation at Straight Creek. According to witnesses they were standing on a bridge over the river attempting to salvage bits of wreckage when a huge tree struck the bridge, carrying it away. The bodies have not been found.

The flood wrought a story of devastation throughout the region. The water flooded a large portion of Pineville and stood eight inches in the floors of many of the business houses in that place.

Mrs. Annie Thornton, 65, was beaten and cut to death with an axe in the road shed at the rear of her home at Wrights, Ballard county, Monday night or 20 minutes later Mrs. Lizzie Bourgeois, 45, was taken into custody and admitted that she had murdered the woman with whom she had been living. Mrs. Bourgeois told officers that she waited to catch a boat that would take her from the city of Cuba river to Cairo, Ill. She was held without bond on a charge of murder.

Mrs. Bourdeaux, separated from her husband, had been living at the Thornton home for two weeks. The two women were alone at the house in the afternoon. Other members of the family returned later in the day and found the body already crushed and otherwise mutilated, and beside the body in the coal shed the bloody axe. A general alarm was sounded and Mrs. Bourgeous was taken into custody.

The woman gave no reason for the killing, but stated that she "would do it over if she had opportunity."

THREE MASKED MEN LYNCH MEXICAN IN NEW MEXICO

At Farmington, N. M., last Friday, three masked men took the law into their own hands and lynched Rafael Benavidas, believed to be the Mexican who Wednesday killed Mrs. Charles Lewis, wife of a prominent sheep man. Benavidas was taken from a cot in a hospital where he lay critically ill with a bullet wound in his abdomen, suffered while he resisted arrest, and hanged to a tree.

BAPTIST BODY REJECTS MONEY FROM RACE MEET

Kentucky Baptists, meeting in Bowlinsville, adopted a resolution informing the press that Baptist Orphans' Homes would not accept any offering from the one-day charity race to be held at the Ft. Bradley-Hide Hour farm last Monday, according to word from the office of the Felix Memorial Baptist church, at several periods to the Kentucky Baptist Orphans' Homes.

The last victim of the hatchet is a woman revealed Tuesday morning when Mrs. Harold Hughes, wife of a former high school football star, was discovered and arrested by officers with a hatchet. She was taken captive by officers and led to a swamp in a swamp not far from her home which she had fled after the murder fine. Stribling, struck first by the fiend is expected to live. His skull was crushed.

Leaving the wife in the swamp the man, described by Mrs. Stribling as a negro of light complexion, about 21 years old, disappeared. Mrs. Stribling wandered to a street intersection and there met a policeman who summoned aid.

Two women and a man are dead presumably victims of the same man. The first was J. W. Blackman, 72-year old negro, found dead in his bed Sunday morning. Monday Mrs. Waldo Reno, 20, and her sister, Miss Greta Brown, 18, were found slain, hacked to death by an axe or hatchet.

The blunt end of the hatchet was used to kill Blackman, examiners found, but the sharp edge cut the jugular vein of the victim. Likewise the sharp edge was used on the Brownlee girl, the latter near the Lower Blue Licks, was taken by Congress from the county in 1809, serving until 1807. According to the Judge Myers, the negro took part in the battle of the Thames during the War of 1812. He died December 7, 1844 and was buried on the farm of Thomas Metcalfe was 26 - and Mr. Kendall is 27.

Eleven years elapsed between the terms served by Major Bodinger and Thomas Metcalfe. Nicholas county's second Congressman, who was elected in 1818 and served until 1827. One hundred and one years later the county furnished her third member of Congress in Elva B. Kendall.

1929 ROLL CALL FOR RED CROSS

Relief Organization Seeking Five Million Members This Year

$1 PAYS ANNUAL DUES

From Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day time set for the annual Roll Call of the Red Cross. Five million members for 1929 is the goal.

It responds when disaster strikes. In the same dispatch proclaiming the destruction by flood, fire earthquake, hurricane and all the multiform curses of the Four Horsemen, we read that the Red Cross has arrived with emergency funds and rations. Like the landing of the American Marines, this means that "the situation is in hand."

Last June more rain fell in Kentucky in one month than normally falls in three. This memorable rivulet became a torrent. Isolated cabins in the valleys above the silvered borders were washed away; so, too, were the crops of freshly seeded for the season. Gardens were gutted. Families had no provisions, no fire, no food, no livelihood—no future. The National Red Cross immediately advanced money from its funds.

In the very year in which Kentucky has been visited by the greatest natural disaster in all its history Kentucky is asked to fill its quota of membership.

Who knows where the Four Horsemen will strike next? We can not see into the future; but as long as there is a Red Cross we have assurance and assurance even against plague, pestilence and famine.

The Red Cross is only as strong as its membership. This is roll call. Let every man do his part. Send your checks to Mrs. Sam Holmes, chairman.
