The Mark of Distinction

A quality standard, an endorsement of quality, a guarantee of quality.

It was essential to identify the work of Harriet J. Carter, for by no means a quarter century ago, she was the first woman to be awarded the title of "Mark of Distinction" for her work in the field of social work.

There is a quality, not just endowment, which cannot be imitated by any person. For it is the quality of character, and the quality of character is the quality of the soul.

Carrie's work has been a constant reminder to all who have seen it of the value of the human spirit, and the value of the human spirit is the value of the soul.
