

THE OPEN PURSE

The value in money is in what it will buy---the necessities, the comforts, the luxuries of life. Money spent in this community to buy these things for its people stays here where each and every person shares in the new profits its trading produces.

More modern conveniences, a wider social life, a greater business activity---in fact, a far reaching, ever growing wave of benefits to every citizen of Carlisle follows the practice of buying at home.

Open the purse strings---not to spend foolishly, but to buy wisely. Carlisle offers you full value for every dollar's worth you buy, plus the greatest of all returns on your money---

ALL HAVE RIGHT TO BALLOT
(This is the second of a series of essays disseminated by John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.)

Never before has a campaign presented so broad a range of subjects as the one now before the American people. The American people are being asked to elect a President and a Vice President, and to elect members of Congress.

The woman's movement has become a national issue. It is no longer a matter of local interest. It is a matter of national interest. It is a matter of national importance.
