BARTERVILLE

(J. W. Rogers, Correspondent)

We ventnte a hurrah for C. B. County for County Attorney. He is a good man for the place and should win in the race.

All the Democrats are coming home August 3. Higher authorities shape things for us. Some will get a sufficient ballotin for all, in some precincts under the law which says, only a number equal to 75 per cent more than the party polled last general election.

Our teachers, Fryman and Rogers, took up their work and walked, last week, to the Sil Greene house on Mary Heights. Sil was sick—it was necessary for J. T. Earlywine, the sand-lord to haul the heavy weight articles that made their book stores, writing desks and cash drawers.

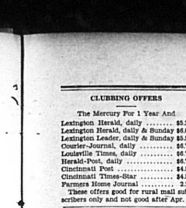
It's "Rogers" time in millions of homes



"Rogers" with ease and speed transforms everything that needs a new, bright, durable, colorful finish.

Purchase genuine "Rogers" for your refinishing or artistic work. "Rogers" is a true home lacquer. Anyone can use it—easily—successfully. Millions of cans are used annually.

Dries While You Wait

You merely flow "Rogers" on with a full brush. No expert brushing out is needed. It sets before your eyes. Dries smooth, without laps or brush marks. Dries before dust can spoil the finish. Dries to a porcelain like hardness that wears and wears and WEARS.

Genuine "Rogers" is the famous "forlastl" can, comes in 26 exquisite lacquer colors, also black, white, clear and no brand new outdoor colors.

SONG OF SPRING

(Bliss Carman)

Over the wintry threshold
Who comes with joy today,
So fair yet so enduring,
To triumph o'er dismay?

Ah, quick her tears are springing
And quickly they are dried,
For scrawn walks before her,
But gladness walks beside.

The music as of rills;
She comes with gust of laughter—
With tenderness and sweetness,
The wisdom of the hills.

Her hands are strong to comfort,
Her heart is quick to heed;
She knows the signs of sadness,
She knows the voice of need.

There is no living creature,
However poor or small,
But she will know its trouble,
And harken to its call.

Oh, well they fear forever,
By mighty dreams possessed,
Whose hearts have lain a moment
On that eternal breast.

WISCONSIN TO VOTE THURSDAY ON PROHIBITION

Another wet-and-dry fight, viewed by both sides as having an important bearing on Wisconsin's future course in enforcement, will be decided at the polls Thursday.

By a "Yes" and "No" vote, the state's citizenry will express its attitude toward the Wright law, a state prohibition act, and a proposal to eliminate the penalties for manufacture and sale of beverages of not more than 2.75 per cent alcoholic content.

Bills have been introduced in the Legislature to carry out both proposals should the people issue such a mandate, and action has been postponed pending the outcome of the referendum a month ago when both houses adopted the resolution of which Senator Thomas M. Duncan, Milwaukee Socialist, was the author.

The annual county diploma examination for students of rural schools will be held at the court house in Carlisle on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 9 and 10. Approximately eighty students are expected to take the examination.
