Friday--See Greta Garbo in "WILD ORCHIDS," a tense drama, replete with action, thrills, adventure and romance. Come and see.

Saturday--Comes Antonio Moreno in "THE AIR LEGION." Say, here is one full of thrills from start to finish. A sure good one. Also a comedy.

Monday--Comes Adolphe Menjou and Shirley O'Hara in "A GENTLEMAN OF PARIS." a drama and beauty. This is one you want to see, as you love Menjou, generally makes good humorous pictures. Don't fail to see thi sone.

LYRIC THEATRE

The Eaton Oil Works shipped equipment here this week and are oiling the Carlisle streets.

A fairly large crowd attended county court day here last Monday. There is little activity in the livestock market.

Thomas B. Rose of Bourbon county, formerly of Nicholas, sold recently to C. C. Coolbaugh, of Philadelphia, a four-year-old five-gallad mare for $1,500.

The members of Howitzer Company, local national guard unit, will return Sunday night from Camp Knox, where they have been field training for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Frank Huff is confined to her bed, suffering with a sprained ankle received on Friday night, when she fell in her room at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Frey.

Frank C. Powell qualified in county court last week as administrator of the estate of his father, the late John G. Powell. No bond was required. Mr. Powell being the sole heir to the estate.

Three Nicholas county young men are enrolled for the second session of the regular summer school at the University of Kentucky. They are Lloyd Smith L. Collier, Otis R. Fryman and Oral Hollar.

Alfred Harris, colored, brought to The Mercury office this week a chicken, hatched two days before, without eyes. The little chick is normal in every other particular, but has no semblance of eyes or even a place for eyes.

J. W. Rogers, former principal of the Barterville high school and unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for Clerk of Harrison county in the recent primary, advertises in a Cynthiana paper that he will open a private preparatory school in Cynthiana this fall.

In last week's issue The Mercury stated that "Uncle Cole" Templeman paid his annual visit to Blue Licks on August 4. We were misinformed as to the date, as he did not go to Blue Licks until last Sunday, when a large crowd gathered to honor him.

Berry Burnam, who has been manager of the A. & P. store at Millersburg for several months, has succeeded George Wilson as manager of the local store of the company. Mr. McCann has taken a position as salesman for Howard & Savage.

Jake Earlywine filed suit in the Nicholas circuit court Monday morning through his attorney, Foster Fox, against Frank Hubbard, of Millersburg, in which he seeks judgment for $400 damages to his automobile alleged to have been sustained in a collision here Sunday night.

Robert Walker, director of athletics of the Carlisle high school, has been attending the school for football coaches at Northwestern University, Chicago, for the past three weeks, and will arrive in Carlisle this week. Billy Conley, quarterback of the Carlisle high school team, has been at the school with Mr. Walker.

Mrs. Clyde Owings received word from her sister, Miss Blythe Wade, at Jacksonville, Fla., that she had received painful injury when a plate glass window blew out in the building in which she was working. Miss Wade's arms were badly cut and a number of stitches were taken to close the wounds. Miss Wade is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wade, of near Moorefield.

Postmaster George D. Scott stated to The Mercury Wednesday that a large number of letters are in the general delivery boxes at the postoffice for persons visiting in Carlisle and Nicholas county. Unless the mail is addressed in care of someone it is impossible to deliver it. Persons having visitors are requested to notify their postmasters, or any of the carriers and, if there is any mail it will be delivered.

W. F. Tuite, of Maysville, who contemplated opening the Citizens Store here until the expiration of his lease on the building, has decided not to come to Carlisle, relinquishing the term of his lease, after February 1, 1930, to Bruce Templeman, present owner of the building. Mr. Sexton will open the City Store in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Tuite.

Three beautiful new homes in the Moorefield section are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy before winter. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Milford, Berry a short distance on the other side of Moorefield has been constructed on the site of their residence destroyed by fire several months ago. It is of frame construction and of beautiful design. Clay Helman and Robert Templeman are having homes erected on the new route of the Moorefield road. The residence of Mr. Helman is a wire-cut brick bungalow, and Mr. Templeman's is a frame bungalow. Both are of beautiful design.
