The Carlisle Tobacco Market

Had one of the best sales that has been held in the State this season on last Saturday. Buyers were plentiful; bidding was spirited and there was general satisfaction expressed by growers. 104,000 pounds sold. Much of it was common, but some of it was good, as the floor average on Farmers Warehouse No. 2 proved. This house had a full floor and averaged

$24.60

The sale at Farmers No. 2, so far as we know, was the highest priced floor of tobacco sold by any warehouse in the Burley belt up to that date.

A Market as Good as the Best Come To Our Sale Today - Thursday, December 19

We have plenty of room and buyers. There is no better light in the state

And who are our Buyers? We have regular representatives from some very large and important tobacco interests; we have several large "order" buyers, as well as some big re-handlers and dealers. Like all other markets we have some speculators, who are undoubtedly a most important factor in the success of any market for any commodity. As a whole we have had on each sale sufficient bona-fide buyers to make that sale a satisfactory market and we expect this to continue throughout the season.
