What the Gray House Hid The Mystery of a Haunted Mansion

by Wynndam Maryn

"What is the deal?" he wanted to know to make out of the other 27...

"I don't want you to disapprove of me...

"I was trying to find a short cut to the interior."

With that he turned his powerful right arm against the wall...

"What kind of creature was that?"

"I don't know," he said. "If it was a ghost, it was a very peculiar one."

He had a strange look on his face...

Quickly Leslie explained what had happened...

"All right," he said, "if you want to see the interior of this house, you must go in with me."

"I think this is what I heard of in a school," he said. "You will not be surprised to find that...

"I don't know," he said. "If it was a ghost, it was a very peculiar one."

How Much Does a Mudhole Cost?

Mudholes in highways are expensive. Sometimes they can swallow many loads of crushed rock...

Many times, mudholes stop traffic altogether, especially in the early spring. That is still more expensive. When traffic stops, business slows up...

The only way to keep mudholes out of a main line highway is to pave the road. Many states and counties have proven this to their complete satisfaction. That is why they keep on extending their concrete roads every year, and widening the older ones.

They have found it cheaper to build concrete roads to keep traffic and business moving, than to suffer the delays and expense caused by mudholes in makeshift roads every spring.

Send for one of our booklets about concrete roads. They are full of interesting information, with pictures from many states. No charges—just write and ask for them!

CRASH!

Down Goes Our Rear Wall

Prices Smashed!

Our stock must be moved out of the way of workmen who began enlarging our store-room last week. Rather than re-handle this merchandise we are going to

SLASH INTO ALL PRICES

With all of our Spring Stock of Merchandise in and the decision to enlarge our store coming unexpectedly, we find it necessary to move most of our stock from the rear of the store, while the wall is being removed. There is no place to put it, so we are FORCED TO SELL, or rent other quarters to store it in until the work of reconstruction is finished. We prefer to take our loss in profits and sell the goods. We haven't even time to quote prices, for everything in the store is included in this PRICE SLASHING and the time is too short for the preparation of hundreds of prices of various articles in our big stock. It would be a physical impossibility for the printer to get it ready for publication in time, so we are going to ask our friends to come to Gordon's and see for themselves what SMASHING REDUCTIONS have been made. Sale starts Friday, March 22. Remember, this is not the usual bargain sale, but an Unusual Forced Sale at the Height of the Spring Season. It means many dollars in savings for you on merchandise that you will be buying soon anyhow. Come Friday, March 22, and get the pick of the bargains.

Sale Begins Friday, March 22
