WITH FRIENDS ALIVE BY TELEPHONE

Haven't you ever wished that you could be with friends who have moved to other cities? They be far away, yet you can easily reach in touch with them...

Recent service improvements have made distant telephone conversations a pleasure. General connections are made almost as quickly with local numbers as you can hear just as clearly as if you were talking to a friend around the corner.

If you're surprised, too, to learn how inexpensive these voice visits now are. At seven cents a minute in the evening, and again at eight cents, reductions are made in the station-connection rates. And long distance calls return so quickly, you're free to talk with your friends and relatives almost anywhere.
