"More Triumphant Than Victory"

"There are some defeats," wrote Montaigne, "more triumphant than victories."

The defeat of our Musketeers by Richmond was little short of being a triumphant victory for the losers.

With a dauntless spirit that ignored the pain of injuries, our Musketeers played championship football every minute of the way. The breaks of the game went against them, that's all.

"That's the stuff, boys! We are proud of you—too enthusiastic over the game of football you put up to bother you with talk about clothes."

Anyhow, we know when you want clothes, you know where to get the best there is—

Shingles are Active

We thought everybody knew that shingles are supposed to go on top of the house, but this fellow is putting one on the bottom. Dad sent the kid to our yard with an order for shingles—had he went to the wrong place—they sent out the wrong kind of shingles—Dad's son and the kid's getting scorer every minute. Next time he'll look for this name:
