"SOMEWHERE IN NICHOLAS"

By J. W. Rogers

"This world is so full of interesting things,
We all ought to be as happy as kings."

We were glad when we learned that Mrs. Robbie Day, Rose Hill vicinity, scored the highest grade in the Nicholas county teachers' examinations this season.

Fifty years ago, a bright, bold young man, delivered a valedictory address at the close of a school in Concord, this county. The golden thread of memory reaches back, and reads some of the ideal thoughts that he clothed in beautiful language, on that occasion. Firman B. Henry was his name. Do you know him?

The school "kitchen" building on the Barterville school grounds has been converted into a teacherage, this year. Mrs. Ava Yates Martin and children are domiciled there, while she teaches the present school term. This is perhaps the first teacherage in Nicholas county.

We hear favorable comment on the new turn pike road via Headquarters from Maysville and Lexington road. The new road, the new school and the new church, in that section are noteworthy improvements to be much appreciated and not soon forgotten.

When Mr. Thomas Gaunce said to Miss Hazel Earlywine, recently, "If I should ask you to be mine, would you then my suit decline?" She answered, "No, sir." Among a few happy and happiest two, in all the town of Sailsbury, they are married.

It is due Myers, to say "Glorious things of thee are spoken" as the new big Christian Church Convention held there lately. What good singing and preaching. Come and see "Come and see."

Nicholas county will have another big Fair. Let's you, and I, and all be there.

Hurrah for Judge Darnall! The right man in the right time, and in the right place. It may truly be said of him, that he will do all the good he can to as many people as he can, in as many ways as he can, just as often as he can, in as many places as he can, and as long as he can.

During the process of the construction of the new Headquarters consolidated high school building, the Headquarters high school has its headquarters in Myers. When the building is ready at an early date, Myers county will have her headquarters at Headquarters.

Bobby Jones, national amateur golf champion, was defeated at Pebble Beach, California, last week by Johnny Farrell, professional golfer, in a breakaway.

Because his father, James Galeton, was 50, scolded him for spending too much money, Duncan Galeton, 14, shot and killed his father at Ashland, Ala., by a deputy sheriff when the boy fled from arrest charge.

The trial of sixteen textile mill strikers on "charges of murder" was halted at Charlotte, N. C., Monday with a member of the jury declared mentally insane.

Arrested for violation of the prohibition laws, Alfred J. Smith, 63, mail carrier, fled from officers at Detroit and deliberately jumped into the Detroit river and was drowned.

Rev. W. J. Cammon, Jackson, Mo., in renewing his subscription, writes: "We find that your paper gives the important news of central Kentucky better than any weekly paper we know by far."

FOOTBALL WEATHER IS NEAR!

That means you will be needing a new Fall Suit—especially if you are going to follow the fortunes of our "Musketeers" in games away from home.

The young man who likes snappy wear needn't go out of town to get it. Our goods are from nationally advertised brands. You'll look well in what we sell you.

PROGRAM

Tonight, Thursday, comes June Collyer in "NOT QUITE DECENT," a melodrama of western Alice, full of action, thrills and a happy ending. Don't fail to see it.

Friday—William Haines in "THE DUDE STEPS OUT." He went to college to please a girl, he fought to save his name. A love romance in fifteen rounds. See the middle weight champion. Think, three stars in this picture, William Haines, Joan Crawford and Karl Dane. If you want to see a sure good one, don't miss this.

Saturday—Comes Ranger, the wonder dog in "LAW OF THE WILD," a picture of the big open spaces, one of the best Ranger has made to date. Also a comedy, come and see.

Monday—Gary Cooper in "UPON THE TONTO RIM," a Zane Grey thriller of the old west, a dandy good picture, the kind we all like, full of everything it takes to make a good outdo
