It Is Predicted

That eggs will sell this winter at $1.00 a Dozen

If eggs reach this price, or even sixty to seventy-five cents per dozen the people who have been feeding will trap a harvest, because their hens will be in prime condition for production of the maximum number of highest grade eggs.

Tuxedo Egg Mash

If you are not using Tuxedo, better start now. And remember it's the feed that doesn't cost you a penny.
