LYRIC THEATRE

The Weather Man favored this section with beautiful weather for Easter Sunday.

The eclipse of the sun April 28 will be one of three in the United States in the next 40 years.

The opening shoot at Hilltop Gun Club will be held Thursday afternoon. Shooting will start at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Pearl Mullikin, of Mt. Olivet, has leased the hotel at Blue Lick Springs. L. B. Barton owned the hotel and will conduct a hotel this summer.

The wool market opened here this week with last week's prices, 30 cents per pound for first quality wool. This is the lowest price in several years.

T. C. Pryor and Jasper Skeen, of this county, will broadcast a program of old-time music from Station WHAS in Louisville, Friday, April 25 from 10 to 10:30 a. m.

The Maysville district conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held at Maysville today. Mrs. Robert Harper and B. L. Currens will represent the Carlisle church at the meeting.

Odas H. Mattox, of Lexington, formerly of Carlisle, will broadcast a musical program from Station WHAS in Louisville next Monday morning, April 28, from 11:15 to 11:30 a. m.

The will of the late Loren Powell was filed for probate in county court today. R. M. Smith qualified as administrator of the estate with Paul Preback as surety in the sum of $1,000

The city school board will meet Thursday night to elect members of the faculty of the schools for the next term. Prof. E. E. Pfantzel has already been reelected as superintendent.

Sparks from a chimney set fire to the roof of the residence of Mrs. Ella Norvell on West Main street Saturday afternoon. The fire department was called and extinguished the blaze with slight damage.

W. H. Frey local agent for the Aetna Insurance Company, attended a dinner at Avrincourt's at the Brent Hotel in Louisville last week. Mr. Frey was given a fine trip for exceeding his quota of insurance.

The county road department has started installing guard rail approaches as for a new steel bridge to be erected over Cassidy creek near the home of Dr. A. H. Durrett. The bridge will contain two sixty-foot spans.

Jake Hopkins, native of this county, under indictment at Maysville on a charge of forgery, was arrested at Newport, Saturday and has been returned to Maysville. Hopkins was arrested recently at Paris, but escaped from officers while being taken to jail.

The State Highway Commission will begin work on the new steel bridge to be erected over Licking river between Maysville and Mt. Carmel, it was learned from officials of the county. These walls are now being completed, as soon as one of them presented two machines from passing.

John P. Campbell, of Myers, state commander for Kentucky of National Indian War Veterans, will go to Cincinnati Saturday to attend a meeting of the organization to be held in that place. Mr. Campbell will represent the Carlisle unit and will be able to attend the meeting in person.

Petty McClanahan has finished the course of children of school age in the Carlisle graded school district, his report showing a total of 214 children between the ages of six and twenty years. This is an increase of twenty-three from the number of children when the census was taken two years ago.

Prohibition agents found a complete moonshine still in an old log cabin on the farm of Orville Howard in the Onion Creek section last Saturday. The still was not in operation and no one was present when the still was found. Howard was arrested and taken to Lexington, where he was released on $2,000 bond.

An election will be held in the city school building on Saturday, May 3, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., to elect one member of the Carlisle graded school board for three years. The term of C. H. Fisher expires and Mr. Fisher was the only candidate to this office to have his name placed on the ballot.

A man without hands has been here for the past few days trying his trade of writing calling cards at a small charge. He has set up his small beautiful figurestan script. In addition to earning his living in this unusual manner due to his handicap, the man can light a cigar, feed himself and perform other feats with as great skill as a man with both hands.

Remember the New Ford Car
Possesses more points of genuine merit than many cars selling for double its price.
The shatterless glass windshield alone should be a big inducement to buy a Ford. In a wreck in this county a few weeks ago the Ford windshield was not even cracked, while that of the big car was broken and came very near causing the death of one of the car's occupants.
The Four Wheel Brakes, designed by Henry Ford himself, clamp the brake drum evenly all round, and you can recognize them by their quiet acting—never any loud, unpleasant noise as you hear in some, no better brake to be had.
Twenty to twenty-five miles to gallon of gasoline.
Substantial, durable bodies, and after many thousand miles service they are still solid and in good condition.
A new Ford in our place recently with over twenty thousand miles service, and an outlay of $1.23 for repairs.
Watch the sales, which is the best proof of quality, and satisfaction they are giving to users. All models in stock. Come in and select the one you want.
FORD 13 Plate Storage Battery $7.50
Greasing Cars by air pressure.
All kinds of work done right.
