

All Children's Day

Just a thought for Children's Day. It seems as if that more and more each year the significance of the old part of the "Yule-tide" is changing.

Back in the time past the Anglo-American celebration of "Yule" at this time of the year, with feasting and merry-making.

The custom of feasting of Christmas night, prior to our celebration of the new Christmas Eve, has been in vogue for a long time.

It is in particularly gratifying to learn that Carlisle County's Christmas Eve is one institution that is "hardly" new.

"Who Wants To Eat A Sick Rabbit?"

Recently a representative farmer asked this writer, in the course of a conversation, "Who wants to eat a sick rabbit?"

The high chair in the home is worth a thousand dollars for checking critics.
