New Instant-Light Aladdin KEROSENE MANTLE LAMP
[A Thing of Beauty and a Joy Forever]

Lights Entire Room

You can read in any part of the room with this wonderful kerosene mantle lamp. The beautiful design of the parchment shade conforms with the design on the bowl in such a way as to produce a very attractive effect. It's a pleasure to do evening reading, waiting or sewing under the white, soft mellow light of this new modernized Aladdin Table Lamp.

No Generating; Waiting; Pressure; Noise; Smoke; Odor; or Trouble

It burns common oil (Kerosene), absolutely safe, can't explode. Anyone can operate it. Government tests and scientific authorities endorse it. Burns for 10 hours on a gallon of coal oil. Gives more than twice and yet burns less than half the oil. The Aladdin was awarded Gold Medal at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

This Store Authorized Distributors for the Aladdin Lamp. A full line of Supplies for all model Aladdin always on hand.

The upper room in the Sims building will be retained for the grocery department of the store. R. L. Norton has leased the room vacated by Beaton's and will open a confectionery about March 1.

The Mercury has been asked to state that John J. Wagoner and Enoch Jones, charged with the theft of chickens from Mrs. John Linwood, reside in the Morning Glory section and not in the Barefoot section, as reported in a news article in this paper last week. We have been further requested to state that in John J. Wagoner arrested is not John Wagoner, of Barefoot, who has been caused some embarrassment as a result of this article.

Social and Society

MIDWINTER

(A. Jacqueline Shaw)

Cerberus on drowsy paws
Rides one sleepy head.
In a silent world alone
Russet leaves are shed.

Stiff and still the rushes stand
Paper-brown and dry.
While across the icy waste
Not one bird doth cry.

Snow deep lie the snowdrops pent
Each within its cell.
Tell me then when all things dream
Shall it yet be well?

Press your ear against the earth
Where the fir trees keep
Just a little free from snow
Hearken! in her sleep

Promption is stirring now
Gently yet you hear
Cerberus will yawn soon
And his mistress dear

One her violet eyes and shake
All her greenish hair.
Flinging back her coverlet.
Look! the spring is there!
