ANIMAL FRENDEMSIES

One hour into the winter months we find, driving the into the flames of a November storm, the beam of light from a lamp on a highway at the end of the road that is empty and lonely, and the beam of light from a lamp on a highway at the end of the road that is empty and lonely.

A melancholy, gloom and winter number without the usual cheer of the season, and the usual cheer of the season, and the usual cheer of the season.

THE BUSINESS OF THE HOME

The home is the small community in an important business undertak-

It is capable of carrying on much of the work that in the large and crowded cities must be performed outside the home.

An ample and inexpensive electric power supply is an increasingly important aid in household work. Electric power contributes to the economic independence of the house-

This is one of the trends of the widespread electric power supply provided by this company through its network of transmission lines.
