Out of the Old Home Into the New

Crossing for the last time, the threshold of the home no longer theirs, they find it friendly shelter and comfort and its memories to take the life anew when they return, if not actual work, will still be in the face.

It is not a pleasant picture, yet very situation confronts the family of any man who fails to provide for the future of his wife and children.

Life insurance provides the one sure way for a man to build up and protect his loved ones when he no longer can; to give his own mind to the future and to make the present more worth while.
