INVENTOR OF PLANETARIUM AS NATIVE OF NICHOLAS

first planetarium, a small working model of which was exhibited by him at a Paris, France, exhibition and brought him international honors.

Actively interested and made well from $2,000 to $5,000, the instruments soon became popular with engineers and universities both in Europe and America and several of the machines were made to order under the personal supervision of the inventor. The Bayer College planetarium was one of the largest ever built, but was not as elaborate as some and was completed at an approximate cost of $6,000 at that time. Today its value is placed at $10,000.

The inventor was also the inventor and builder of the first automobile to operate west of the Allegheny mountains. He and Miss Mollie Bachert, the inventor of the Barbour knife — Thomas Harris Barbour — were married the planetarium, was a great deal of fun for Mr. and Mrs. Barbour at their home at Headquarters. They were married in 1881 and lived on the old road to Carlisle.

MEN WHO RODE WITH MORGAN HOLD REUNION

The two who rode with General John Hunt Morgan, their ranks thinning with the passing years, held a reunion during the past week at the Lafayette hotel in Lexington. They met and spent the afternoon at the old home of General Morgan at Lexington and told stories in Lexington and of whom were with Morgan attending the reunion present for the reunion.

STATE-WIDE REGISTRATION SET TO UPHELD BY McGREGOR

Circuit Judge Thomas B. McGregor of Franklin Circuit Court Saturday upheld the validity of Gov. Flem D. Sampson's order of the 1930 registration law providing for the statewide registration of voters. The bill becomes law on September 1. March 10, was passed by him on March 21, the day following the adjournment of the General Assembly.

Judge McGregor cited section 48 of the Constitution in support his decision. That section provided that the General Assembly should have ten days exclusive of Sundays, to approve or veto any measure presented to him by the General Assembly. The first day or the day the bill was delivered, does not count in the computation of time on the bill, Judge McGregor ruled.

Judge McGregor also granted an injunction to restrain Miss Ella Lewis, Secretary of State, and party officials from taking any steps toward providing for a registration of voters under the terms of the bill, which he held is not a law.

The ruling was given in a test suit brought by Ben B. Combs, Shelbyville publisher.

FILLING STATION PERMIT REFUSED

Giles Oil Company Denied Right To Erect Tanks On Beatty Lot on East Main

WILL REPLACE BRIDGE

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council Monday night, considerable time of the council was taken up in the discussion of a permit asked by the Giles Oil Company, of Cynthiana, for the construction of three storage tanks and a filling station on the lot owned by Joe Beatty at the corner of East Main and Locust streets.

Two petitions were presented to the council, one asking that the permit be granted a permit to erect the filling station and the other asking that the permit be refused.

Attorney Foster V. Cox represented the Giles Oil Company in seeking the permit while Attorney Samuel Holmes represented the property owners in the victory in asking that the permit be refused. Practically the only resident of that section signed a petition asking that the permit be granted, on the grounds that insurance rates in that section of the city would be reduced if the station is installed.

Councilman Ed Beatty offered a motion that the permit be refused, which was seconded by Councilman Ben Rose. The motion was unanimously adopted. Mr. Cox declared that the action of the city in the matter of the property owners would not cause the location of the plant, and asked that the council reconsider its action. The request for further action was taken under advisement by the council, pending the refusal of a permit.

W. D. Shankland was awarded a contract for the erection of a new bridge over Brushy Fork creek at the rear of the Carlisle Hotel at a cost of $380. The bridge was washed from its foundation during the high water the week the rain never been replaced. Mr. Shankland agreed to erect a new bridge and put it back in its original condition with the exception of the flooring.

Mayor Veach inspected the street committee to look after the condition of High street, the hill on which the Eastern Avenue and have the streets reconstructed if necessary.

The Farmers Bank reported a balance of $4,040.21 in the general fund, $302.16 in the water works fund and $1,139.14 in the water works sinking fund.

FIVE KILLED, MANY HURT IN FLOODS IN STUDENTS

One mechanic was killed and several drivers and mechanics injured at the Louisville Motor Speedway when a dirt racing track at Winchester, Ind., four persons were killed and 15 others injured in automobile races here at Frisco.

At Indianapolis Paul Marshall, of Detroit, riding an Indian Prince machine, Cy Marshall, of Indianapolis, was killed when their machine overturned. 17 racing cars were tied up in the two weeks' grind of elimination from the race.

At Winchester Leonard Bruhn, of Fort Wayne, lost control of his racer and plunged through the wire into a group of spectators, causing the death of four and the injury of 15 others.

Billy Arnold, 22, of Chicago, driving an eight cylinder Miller racing machine, easily won the 500-mile race, going the distance in 5 hours, 16 minutes and 39 seconds for an average of 100.448 miles per hour. The race won for him $52,150.

1,200 MILES OF ROAD HIGH TYPE

Approximately 1,200 miles of high-type roads already have been completed on Kentucky's system of thirteen federal highways, to which will be added this year 380 miles, making the routes 73 per cent complete. It was indicated last week by the release of mileage figures on projects slated for construction this year.

The Highway Department figures show that the total mileage in the state system is now 2,270 miles of which 1,200 miles are high type. Of the 1,070 miles to be completed after this year, "when the new highway construction is completed there will be 2,585 miles incompletely amounting to 83 per cent of the system.

The bulk of the unfinished work after this year will be on three of the arterial routes where the gaps will total 432 miles, or 68 per cent of all the gaps in the federal highway system.

FIRST APPENDICITIS OPERATION

April 23, 1883, is recorded in surgical history as the date of the first successful operation for the removal of an appendix. It was performed by Dr. William W. Grant, in Davenport, Iowa. The operation and pioneering patient's name has since been forgotten, but it is known that he lived 25 years after his history-making operation.

LAW WILL COST COUNTY $315.25

Brock-Gilbert "Clean Election Law" Will Necessitate Purchase Of New Ballot Boxes

The application of the provisions of the Brock-Gilbert "clean election law," passed by the last session of the legislature, will cost Nicholas county $315.25 for equipment required under this act. The county also has several voting booths, which are too small to be used under the provisions of the act, and if new booths are purchased this will cost several hundred dollars more.

The law provides for two special ballot boxes, one to cost $8.25 each and the other $7.25 each. One of the boxes must be provided for each precinct in the city and county, while the other must be provided and furnished for each of the county precincts and two for each of the city precincts.

There are 18 precincts in the city and county and the 18 large ballot boxes will cost a total of $148.50. The 23 smaller boxes required will cost a total of $166.75, making a total of $315.25 for the new ballot boxes alone. The law also provides that the voting booths or rooms must be large enough to allow the voter room to step fully away from the officers when the ballot is cast. The present booths are too small for this purpose and most of the rooms now used are much too small. This will necessitate in some instances the remodeling of the booths or the securing of different rooms in which to hold elections.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR L. & N. ANNOUNCED

Mixed Trains Substituted For Two Passenger Trains; Only One Train Each Way On Sundays

Passenger train service on the branch of the L. & N. was further curtailed Monday morning when the regular passenger trains were taken off, leaving only one passenger train per day each way, and one of them a mixed train. Some changes in time will also be made. Two mixed trains will be substituted for the two passenger trains taken off. The mixed trains will consist of a coach in addition to the freight.

The southbound train from Maysville now arrives here at 6:12 a. m. instead of 6:20. The other southbound train, mixed freight and passenger, will arrive at 2:30 p. m. and leave at 4:40. This train takes the place of the train which formerly arrived here at 1:52 p. m.

The northbound train from Paris will arrive here at 9 a. m. This will be a mixed passenger and freight train and takes the place of the passenger train which formerly arrived here at 9:13 a. m. The night train from Lexington will arrive here at 6:40 p. m. On Sundays there will be only one train each way. The train from Maysville will arrive at 9:17 a. m. and return at 7:57 p. m.

The mixed train will be taken off the mixed trains and a clerk will be only one clerk will be taken off the train.

The curtailment of service is made necessary by the lack of passenger and mail officials say. The office force of the Carlisle station has also been greatly reduced during recent months and now consists only of four employees at the local depot. Three passenger trains have been run here for the past two years. Shortly after the first of the year there were ten employes at the depot here.

HOPKINS IS LANDED IN MAYSVILLE JAIL

Man Charged with Stealing Cream Checks Here And Passing Them On Merchants In Maysville

A man alleged to be Elmer Hopkins, under indictment in the Mason circuit court for passing cream checks on Maysville several months ago, was apprehended in Cincinnati Saturday and brought to Maysville where he was placed in jail to await trial.

Hopkins, a native of the Ellerslie section of this county, and two other men are alleged to have stolen the cream checks from the store of D. P. Yaegin & Son, of Swift & Co., in Ellisville. The men then are alleged to have gone to Maysville where each proximately twenty of the checks for various amounts were passed on Maysville merchants.

22 COUNTIES REPRESENTED IN KENTUCKY WOOL POOL

Approximately 100,000 pounds of pooled wool has been received at the Louisville warehouse on South Broadway in Lexington, by the Kentucky Association and 22,000 pounds of this has so far been weighed, graded and shipped to eastern buyers, it is announced.

Large consignments of pooled wool were received the past week from both Owen and Gallatin counties, big wool-producing counties, several shipments from these counties having been received during the week. Other counties from which about 22 different counties have joined the pooling movement and sent their clip to the concentration headquarters here. During the coming week, shipments are expected from Hancock, Mason and Jessamine counties.

"An Evening in Hawaii"

Vienna's Hawaiians will close Chautauqua week. The company is the only group of Hawaiians on the Redpath-Horner circuit and is using on Chautauqua most elaborate stage settings ever seen on the platform here. Native costumes, Mauna Loa volcano effects, and true tropical environment, are truly spectacular. Their music is superb, their soft, natural voices blending perfectly with their native instruments.

WILL NOT APPEAL SECOND ROAD SUIT

Attorney Announces He Will Advise Clients To Drop Action Against New Highway Board

Gardner K. Byers, of Louisville, attorney for the four taxpayers in the second suit attacking the state highway commission, said Tuesday he would advise his clients that there was no possibility of success from a decision of Judge Thomas B. McGregor in the Franklin circuit court refusing to grant an injunction restraining the eight-member commission from meeting and transacting business as a highway commission.

Mr. Byers stated that the points raised in the second suit were subordinate to the issue decided by the court of appeals in the first suit and, consequently, that the lieutenant governor and governor were both executive officers with appointive power.

SCHOOL BUDGETS OF 77 COUNTIES ARE APPROVED

The state board of education has approved school budgets of 75 counties and cities, it was announced by Superintendent of public instruction.

The budgets must be approved by the state board of education before contracts may be made with teachers for the coming school year.

Nicholas board of independent and city school districts do not have to be approved by the state board.

Of the 77 counties whose budgets have been approved, 24 are eligible to participate in the $1,250,000 equalization fund for teachers' salaries for the 1930 assembly.

To be eligible to participate in the equalization fund a county must levy a 75 cent tax on each $100 worth of taxable property and a $1 poll tax for school purposes. The equalization fund guarantees a minimum salary of $75 a month to each teacher who meets the state requirements.

The $1 poll tax, according to the schedules, ranges from $ cents to $1. Scott and Bourbon counties' budgets have been approved, but did not levy a poll tax.

Fayette county levied a $ cent poll tax; Boyle county levied a 50 cent poll tax and Franklin county a 50 cent poll tax for school purposes. All the other counties whose budgets have been approved each levied a $1 poll tax.

Five counties, Fayette, Clark, Grant, Mercer and Scott, have provided for extra salaries in excess of those in their budgets. The other counties have made arrangements for terms of seven or eight months.

Counties which have not submitted their budgets include Bell, Bourbon, Bracken, Carroll, Fleming, Garrard, Harlan, Jessamine, Knott, Knox, Laurel, Madison, Montgomery, Nicholas, Oldham, Powell and Woodford.

EMINENCE MAN KILLS SELF WITH WOUNDS SELF

At Eminence Tuesday, Dan Shay, 61, shot and killed his sister, Mrs. Emma Riley Stevens and then shot and fatally wounded himself. Officers said Shay killed his sister with a shotgun and then took a pistol, which officers say is almost a double-barrelled shotgun, and shot himself in the head. He then picked up the gun and shot his sister at his sister from a distance of six feet, and then went into the yard and shot himself in the head. He died Saturday by a mob which evaded officers.

CHANGE IN SQUIRREL LAW

The last General Assembly made a change in the squirrel law, according to Elmer M. Miller, State Game Warden. The open season this year will be August 1 to December 1. Formerly it was July 1 to October 15.

LYRIC INSTALLING SOUND EQUIPMENT

Local Theatre, Closed This Week, Will Reopen Thursday Night, June 12, With All-Talking Pictures

Keeping abreast of the times with the latest in equipment and pictures, Manager Bennett Conley, of the Lyric Theatre, is installing sound pictures in the theatre this week. The theatre is closed this week while the change is being made.

The installation will be completed and the picture shows will reopen Thursday night, June 12, with an all-talking picture show. In addition to the sound equipment the theatre owner will accompany all of the pictures with music.

Photophone equipment is being installed, the equipment being of the latest and most approved design. The installation necessitates a considerable outlay, and the company will be spared to make the Lyric as good a picture show as can be found in this section.

SCHOOL BUDGETS OF 77 COUNTIES ARE APPROVED

The state board of education has approved school budgets of 75 counties and cities, it was announced by Superintendent of public instruction.

The budgets must be approved by the state board of education before contracts may be made with teachers for the coming school year.

Nicholas board of independent and city school districts do not have to be approved by the state board.

Of the 77 counties whose budgets have been approved, 24 are eligible to participate in the $1,250,000 equalization fund for teachers' salaries for the 1930 assembly.

To be eligible to participate in the equalization fund a county must levy a 75 cent tax on each $100 worth of taxable property and a $1 poll tax for school purposes. The equalization fund guarantees a minimum salary of $75 a month to each teacher who meets the state requirements.

The $1 poll tax, according to the schedules, ranges from $ cents to $1. Scott and Bourbon counties' budgets have been approved, but did not levy a poll tax.

Fayette county levied a $ cent poll tax; Boyle county levied a 50 cent poll tax and Franklin county a 50 cent poll tax for school purposes. All the other counties whose budgets have been approved each levied a $1 poll tax.

Five counties, Fayette, Clark, Grant, Mercer and Scott, have provided for extra salaries in excess of those in their budgets. The other counties have made arrangements for terms of seven or eight months.

Counties which have not submitted their budgets include Bell, Bourbon, Bracken, Carroll, Fleming, Garrard, Harlan, Jessamine, Knott, Knox, Laurel, Madison, Montgomery, Nicholas, Oldham, Powell and Woodford.

EMINENCE MAN KILLS SELF WITH WOUNDS SELF

At Eminence Tuesday, Dan Shay, 61, shot and killed his sister, Mrs. Emma Riley Stevens and then shot and fatally wounded himself. Officers said Shay killed his sister with a shotgun and then took a pistol, which officers say is almost a double-barrelled shotgun, and shot himself in the head. He then picked up the gun and shot his sister at his sister from a distance of six feet, and then went into the yard and shot himself in the head. He died Saturday by a mob which evaded officers.
