PAN-A-MIN

Keeps Hens In Laying Trim

Dr. Hess' Poultry Pan-a-min enables hens to convert the maximum amount of feed into eggs and profit—it is not a feed and does not take the place of feed—but no feed can take the place of Pan-a-min whether you are using your own farm-grown grain or are buying a commercial feed. You will always get better results by adding Pan-a-min to the ration.

Costs less than a penny a month per hen.

A BUYERS' SEASON

(Special Correspondent)

The Kentucky tobacco season is over, that is, in the auction markets, and a buyers season it was. Growers from the Blue Grass to the Pennyrile received approximately $57,000,000 for the offerings of 421 types of leaf, compared to more than $60,000,000 for the same grades during the previous season. Commissioner of Agriculture Ben Bright is convinced that the farmers marketed a good lot of tobacco, but the 1 and 2 grades received should not be attributed entirely to quality of the crop. The outstanding fact is that poor prices were received for all types, especially in the Burley belt.

Burley averaged only 2 or 3 cents a pound for lots of their tobacco. Dark tobacco was slightly better. That of course, does not pay the tobacco farmer for his labor, Commissioner Bright reviewing the crop as a whole says it had an excellent burning and a good texture. Much of it was cut before maturity in order to save it from being burned up in the field. Despite the increased production there was little increase in the amount of high-grade tobacco. Prices were high for cigarettes and smoking tobacco, but low for chewing. Generally, the prices paid for this good tobacco were less than 30 days service on such committee in any one month.

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council Saturday night, the city tax levy for 1930 was fixed at $1 on each one hundred dollars property, the same amount as in force for the past three years. Accounts were allowed and ordered paid and other routine business transacted. The proposition of enforcing the ordinance which prohibits horse trading cards on Water street was discussed at length but no action was taken.

Everett Beers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett J. Beers, of Winchester, formerly of Carlisle, and four other members of the orchestra of the First Christian church in Louisville were injured Saturday in an automobile accident near Frankfort. The orchestra was enroute to Louisville to broadcast a program over Station WHAS, when Beulah Waller suffered a wrenched back and Lantz Ogden suffered a deep cut over the eye. Beers, Miss Elizabeth Clay and Miss Mary Eleanor Clay sustained only minor cuts.

Joseph Gordon suffered painful cuts on his head and Wednesday while enroute to Cincinnati in the automobile of George W. Gordon, Mr. Gordon was riding in the rear seat of the automobile when Mr. Taylor temporarily lost control of the car and it went off the road, striking an embankment. Mr. Gordon was thrown against the side of the machine, and his head painfully cut. The accident occurred near Falmouth and the injured man was taken to Cincinnati where he was placed in a hospital. He remained at the hospital several days and is now at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gordon went to Cincinnati to be with him, but has returned home.

Social and Society

MARCH SEVELBY

Blow, winds blow,
Over high and low,
Into every sheltered place!
Ruffle the rills,
Climb the hills,
And along the tree-tops race.

Creep 'round a house
As quiet as a mouse,
Then boldly rattle the doors,
Steal windows tapping
A slow, ghostly rapping,
And scurry over the floors.

Ring a bell
In a low, weird knell;
Croon softly in chimneys wide;
Swoop to the ground,
Send the leaves around,
In a merry whirlwind ride.

Gather the clouds
In massive crowds,
And drive them across the sky;
Imprison the stars
Behind gray bars,
Your transport loses roar high.

Lull to sleep
In valleys deep,
When the night is almost done,
Leaving never a trace
In any place
Of your hours of riotous fun.

The new minister, S. H. Cunningham and family, of Millersburg, will church last Sunday, and preached both morning and evening to the large congregations. He said in part before the congregation that he was not a ministers of Christ. We are here to lead and to serve. We came to the church that did not want us to leave. We refused two other calls to come here. We did not come for money or fame. We came because we believed that line in order to be with you. We have problems and future are a challenge to our service for Christ. We are deeply interested in the county program of Christian education and in the county—wide service. It is our policy not to fight folks. You have your problems to pass and with each other are your own business. We are not here to meddle in your business. We are here to help you with this church. We want to be the pastor of each one of you. We condemn sin but not the sinner. We will endeavor to be the friend of each and help them find Christ. Ours is a task to point out the way. We do not
