SALTWELL

(J. G. Mattox, Correspondent):

Death has visited our community again and claimed for its victim Mrs. Rhoda Hill Bramblett, wife of Mr. M. Earlywine. She was the daughter of the late Nicholas Hill, of Saltwell and was born January 21, 1861. Died March 12, 1930. She married and in marriage to James M. Earlywine in December 8, 1880. To this union has been five children, Herman F., who died in infancy, Mary Alice, Mrs. Mattox, of near Paris, Mrs. Chappell Ritchie, of this country, and Jesse D. Earlywine.

During a meeting at Saltwell in 1892, conducted by Rev. W. J. Harney, under the pastorate of Rev. A. E. Colgrove, she was converted and united with the M. E. Church South at Saltwell. Besides her husband she is survived by three brothers, Robert H. Hill, of Missouri, W. E. and C. M. Hill, of this county, and Mrs. Sarah J. P. Frederick, Mrs. J. M. Layton, Mrs. David Myers and Mrs. J. W. Earlywine. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mann Rudolph, Rev. Ezra Mann at the Saltwell church in the presence of a large crowd. Many beautiful floral tributes were taken to the Paris cemetery and laid to rest. The entire family have the sympathy of the community in their sad hour of bereavement.

E. G. RASMUSSEN, Instructor in Marketing Vanderbilt University, cites the efficiency of the chain store method: "Chain buying principle is the basis of large-scale buying. Its advantage is due to large scale economics and efficiency in management." Kroger stores are among this principle of cooperation. The economies from this large scale buying, quick handling and efficiency are passed along, in the form of savings, to the public. This principle is practically adopted, their opinion of the chain store, replied that they considered the chain store to the interest of the public.

PROGRAM

Tonight, Thursday, comes Norman Kerry and Pola Negri in "THE WOMAN FROM MOSCOW." See her driving the spirited horse across the Russian frozen to mete out vengence. Don't miss it.

Friday—Greta Garbo in "THE KISS," a story of love, intrigue and romance, the kind of picture you will like. Come and see.

Saturday—Tom Tyler in "NEATH WESTERN SKIES." Justice comes in its own way to the villian. This is a sure good Western. Also a comedy.

Monday—Comes Ruth Taylor in "JUST MARRIED." Let the wedding bells ring out. This is your invitation to the wedding of Miss Ruth Taylor and James Hall in "Just Married," a sure fine comedy-drama. Don't fail to see it.

LYRIC THEATRE

The fishing pole and tackle business has been brisk during the past week.

Tomorrow, Friday, March 21, marks the official beginning of Spring, according to the calendars.

Mrs. Kate Hamm Tuesday purchased the interest of the late Mrs. Mollie Berry on West Main street at a price said to be around $1,000.

W. C. Hamilton, of Mt. Sterling, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district, was in Carlisle Saturday in the interest of his race.

Notwithstanding the low prices received for tobacco last winter, farmers throughout this section apparently intend to raise a larger acreage this year than was raised last.

The will of Solomon Sharp was probated in county court last week. In the will the testator bequeathed his estate to his son, John Sapp, after the payment of all just debts.

Omer A. Berry has resigned as clerk at the furniture store of Sam T. Howe & Co. and will devote all of his time to his farming interests. Mr. Berry has been employed at the store for several years.

W. M. Stephenson qualified in county court Saturday as administrator of the estate of J. W. Call, deceased, with T. H. Britts surety in the sum of $1,000. R. L. Boyd, Wayne Donaldson and Joe Bramblett were appointed appraisers of the estate.

The Drug Store Cowboys, local independent basket ball team, will enter the independent basket ball tournament to be played in the Athens school gymnasium in Fayette county next week. The tournament will begin on Wednesday night and continue until Saturday night.

The home place of the late James P. Hopkins near Little Rock in Bourbon county, containing eighty-five acres, was sold at public auction Saturday morning by Dreck O'Neal & Harper Auburg, for $164.50 per acre. A second tract, comprising 78 acres, was purchased by Ivan Roper, of Little Rock, for $146 per acre.

The largest sheep claim of the year was filed with County Clerk Mrs. Bertha L. Westfall Saturday by Ed and Hugh Hunter for $225 as a result of a raid by dogs on their flock of sheep on the night of March 3 in which 15 ewes were killed. According to the affidavit filed with the claim the dog which killed the sheep belonged to Tom Workman.

Aden Hukins, 22, and James H. Murray, 18, students at the University of Kentucky were injured at noon Thursday when a motorcycle which they were riding went through a red light signal and crashed into the truck of the Carlisle Transfer Co. Omar Grimes, driver of the local truck, was unharmed. Hugins suffered a broken leg and other injuries.

The general merchandise store of A. M. Peed at Sharpsburg was robbed at an early hour Thursday morning by thieves who smashed a window in the front of the building to gain entrance to the store. Several hundred dollars worth of merchandise was taken and it is believed the thieves used a truck in which to haul away the loot. Mr. Peed, owner of the store and his wife are spending the winter in Florida.

Sign o' spring: For the fourth time since 1925, the purple martin colony that summers with the editor of The Mercury has appeared during the third week in March. Usually but two birds, perhaps scouts from the slower-moving colony enroute from the Tropics, come in this early. Whether they go back and meet the colony is interesting speculation. Two chilly, tired martins reached here Wednesday morning, as "Spring's not far behind."

C. U. Bramblett, Carlisle's oldest real estate and insurance agent in point of years in the business, will retire from active business on April 1 and will close his office in the First National Bank building. Ill health is the cause of Mr. Bramblett's retirement from business. He has been engaged in the real estate and insurance business here for thirty years or more and for half a century has been engaged in the insurance business in Carlisle and Nicholas county.

George McCarty, young man confined in the Nicholas county jail awaiting trial on charges of breaking into the home of Mrs. Lucy and C. H. Bauer Co. and stealing a number of articles, escaped from the jail last Thursday. The young son of Jailer Will Owings had let two other prisoners go to the basement to carry in some coal and left the jail key in the door. Young Owings was called to another part of the building and in his absence McCarty either reached his arm through the bars and unlocked the door or Owings had left the door unlocked, and he dashed to liberty.

AN OLD LOVE SONG

An old love song so sweetly can tell
What only youth can hear, It can compel
The grim Lascon cares to set men free
To live again within a memory.
That's why I love an old love song so well.

Sometimes, in fierce, self pity, I rebel
As barren hours toll meekly forth their knell,
Then I begin to sing, unconsciously,
An old love song.

And oh, the old song casts a witching spell:
I am a girl again. Again I dwell
Within the measures of a song.
Again I see
My friends go swinging down the lane with me!
Youth wisely builds its own citadel.
An old love song
