To All Tobacco Growers

We want to congratulate you on the satisfactory market we are having. We want to publicly state our appreciation to all Tobacco Factories for the manner of the business and prices they are paying for this crop.

Here is hoping a healthier deck of 1931 trees will be better than 1930.

We have sold to date 1,132,065 pounds of tobacco at an average of $18.04. We have sold tobacco from 15 counties in Kentucky, 12 in Ohio, 3 in Indiana, 2 in West Virginia, 2 in Missouri.

We ask to tell your tobacco, knowing that MAYSVILLE IS THE WORLD'S BEST BURLEY MARKET, and knowing none can serve you quite as well.

Open-Front Poultry House Is Best Here

The open-front poultry house is the best for the Kentucky conditions, according to Howard McKim, farm manager for the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky. McKim has found that open-front houses equipped with suitable exhaust fans will give the best results.

SOMEWHERE IN NICHOLAS

(By J. W. Rogers)
Christmas is near and Christmas cheer, and now my money has been spent. When good times come again by and by, all can bear the year and the year by me.

A CARD FROM GEORGE MITER

From more than 200 letters and cards I have received since my article of December 1st, I note that the farmers and buyers of Nicholas and Robertson counties are interested in a resolution of my district, and I am glad to hear that.
