Democratic Nominee For Governor Plans Relief For Tax Burdened State

Laffoon Flays Republicans

Marble in Speech of Acceptance

Promises Rigid Economy in Business Administration

Jeffersonville, July 9.—Rufus Laffoon, a member of the Democratic party, today announced his acceptance of the nomination for governor of the state in the primary election to be held on August 11. In his speech of acceptance, Laffoon flayed the Republicans for their failure to bring about a more equitable tax system for the state. He promised a rigid economy in his business administration.

THE GARDEN

TIMELY GARDEN TOPICS

By John B. Gardner, Kentucky College of Agriculture

Lawn Care—If the lawn becomes so far from a good yard that it is to be given up, it is better to try to bring it back to its former condition. A good yard is a source of pride and pleasure to the owner. It is a source of pride and pleasure to the owner. It is a source of pride and pleasure to the owner.

JUDGE RUBY LAFFOON

After making his acceptance of the nomination for governor of the state in the primary election to be held on August 11. In his speech of acceptance, Laffoon flayed the Republicans for their failure to bring about a more equitable tax system for the state.
