TO CARLISLE TAXPAYERS

At the regular meeting of the City Council of Carlisle, it was decided to notify the tax payers that the book for 1931 is now ready and in the hands of the Treasurer at the Farmers Bank and that he is ready to receive 1931 taxes. The Council further decided that if there is a sufficient amount of the taxes paid between this date and the regular meeting in August to pay for the oiling of the streets, that the City will assume that obligation and not collect the street oiling tax. Before the city will be able to handle this bill of $1,175 for the oiling out of the general expense, it must first collect the tax, so be sure to pay yours in by August 1, if you wish to avoid the payment of an oil tax.

Kamala Best Remedy For Tapeworms In Chickens

Tapeworms are white, flat, segmented, ribbon-shaped parasites. Some species are very small and almost invisible to the naked eye; others are larger and easily recognized. Chickens infested with tapeworms are unthrifty and may become so emaciated and weak as to seem paralyzed. In some cases the most prominent symptom is a twisting of the neck and head.

The department of animal pathology at the Experiment Station, University of Kentucky, says that kamala is the remedy for the removal of tapeworms. The dose of this drug is 15 grains for mature fowls and half that much for frying size chickens. The birds to be treated should be held off feed for 24 hours before and for three hours following the treatment. The house should then be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected.

PUTTING HARRISON ON THE SPOT

(The Madisonville Messenger.)

Judge Ruby Laffoon's speech, accepting the Democratic nomination for governor, is the most appealing strongly to the thinking independent voter because of the unanswered diagnosis of the state's ills, as well as one that will be the basis of a real battle for the boys in Democracy's front line trenches. Calmly, and step by step, the nominee makes the charge the "mess of corruption the Democrats accumulated under the Harrison regime. He pointed out fostering spots on all sides, and as readily offered reasonable corrective suggestions, marked the statesman.

The nominee plastered withering indictments of waste, plunder and graft all over Republicanism, then went higher and linked the sad plight of Kentucky to the decrepit condition of the nation, which is the indefensible, bureaucratic Hoover administration now directly chargeable. He traced the decadence of governmental integrity from the Ohio gang under Harding, through the inexcusable indifference and stupid stagnation of the Coolidge administration to a climax of disgrace—disgrace personified in the present executive. Judge Laffoon confessed inability to reconcile Harrison's criticism of the Democratic ticket because, as the Republican nominee has said, it was "hand picked."

Pointing out that the Republican platform endorsed neither the present Hoover administration nor the Barkley-Harrison administration, Judge Laffoon asked Mayor Harrison whether he endorsed both or either. That put Milliken Bill in a tough spot. He must step off his platform, the one he demanded be submitted to him in advance, to say he does endorse either or both; or he must refuse to speak, and so arouse the ire of both Hoover and Sampson camps. Yes, that is a tough spot.

Further, Judge Laffoon quoted from the platform that Harrison approved before he would accept that nomination a lengthy tribute to the business ability of the Republican candidate as exemplified in his administration as mayor of Louisville. This was gravy for the speaker, who had only to refer to the increase in taxes, in property assessment, in street car fares, in public utility rates sanctioned by the Harrison administration to completely destroy the myth built about the debonaire youth as a business man. Louisville's indebtedness today is ten times as great as that of the state of Kentucky," said Judge Laffoon. John Smith, even, can get the implication.

The speaker asked the Republican nominee many questions that will embarrass him, and, as the campaign progresses and the Democratic nominee hits his stride as a bush beater, he will make things hotter and hotter for the city boy. He will make it plain to John Smith that Harrison is hopelessly beaten, that he was defeated before he announced, that nobody can defend successfully the conduct of the Republican party in either state or nation. But, as an opener, the Laffoon speech was a masterpiece, one that will inspire confidence alike in Democratic nominee and Democratic platform. And, for the first time in history, the people of Hopkins county were hearing a favorite son begin his cry of battle that will lead him to the governor's mansion.

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

VOLUME LXV ESTABLISHED 1867 CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KY., THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1931 PUBLISHED THURSDAYS NUMBER 30

HEALTH UNIT IS ESTABLISHED HERE

Dr. Harmon Todd Smiser Opens Offices In First National Bank Building

TO DEVOTE FULL TIME

Dr. Harmon Todd Smiser, County Health Officer, arrived in Carlisle last week and has opened offices in the rooms in the First National Bank formerly occupied by Dr. S. F. Hutchings. Dr. Smiser will be in charge of the health unit established here by action of the fiscal court several months ago.

Miss Flood, the public health nurse, arrived Monday and has entered upon her duties.

Both Dr. Smiser and the nurse will devote their entire time to the work in this county. This is the first time Nicholas county has ever had a full-time health unit and the county is to be congratulated upon securing the service of a full-time health officer for less than the little outlay of cash. The cost of maintaining the unit will be only $7,500 per year, the county paying about $2,500 of this amount and the remainder being paid by the state and federal governments.

Dr. Smiser is a native of Harrison county and is a graduate of the college of medicine of the University of Louisville. He has just finished an internship at St. Joseph's hospital, Lexington.

The county health officer is not a meaner doctor and will not do a general practice in Carlisle. He will devote his entire time to the work of the health unit established here.

The work of both members of the health unit will be along the lines of education in preventing disease and in sanitation. From time to time the department will carry articles in The Mercury explaining the work being carried on.

TWO YOUTHS HELD FOR AUTO THEFT

Son Of President Of Millersburg College And U. Of K. Student Arrested In California

Two youths, one of whom said he was a son of the president of Millersburg College, and the other a student at the University of Kentucky, were held at Oakland, California, Saturday for investigation concerning stolen automobiles.

Andrew T. Christian, 20, who said he was a former University of Kentucky athlete, was trundled to jail from a hotel, wrapped in blankets, because his companion had taken their only good suit to go for an automobile ride. Christian formerly attended M. I. at Millersburg.

His pal, giving his name as F. E. Holliday, 21, told police he was the son of C. E. Holliday, president of Millersburg College. He was arrested on 91 Cecilia, a nearby town, when police said he was driving 70 miles an hour in a stolen automobile en route to a Los Angeles man.

Christian, from police said, has his home was in Pittsburgh, and that he and Holliday were playing cards in Lexington when they decided to go West. They began their trip in a farmer's brother's automobile and had only 40 cents between them, they said.

At Reno they sold a setter dog for $30 and went on to Oakland in another automobile they had "picked up" police said.

Cynthiana And Paris Hold Good Lamb Sales

Last Monday the Cynthiana Live Stock & Tobacco Sales Co. at its regular sale sold 2,500 lambs, which 2,093 lambs as an average of $8.22 per hundred. Prices ranged from 6 cents pounds per head and 75% of them were ewes and bucks.

This firm is having a very successful season, having lead the State and terminal markets on a number of sales so far this season.

The complete report of the sale follows:

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 2,611; choice lambs, $9.25 @ $9.45; good choice lambs, $9.00 @ $9.25; medium lambs, $8.00 @ $9.00; common lambs, $6.00 @ $7.00; wethers, $4.25; bucks, $1.50 @ $3.00.

Hogs—Receipts, 39; stockers, $7.05; heavies $6.50; sows and pigs, $4@$5.

Calves—Receipts, 89; tops, $8.00; seconds, $7.25.

Bourbon Sale Record One

The Bourbon County Cooperative Livestock Association held a record breaking sale last Friday when 4,405 lambs were sold at an average of $8.68 lambs were sold at an average of $8.68 per hundred pounds. Fancy lambs brought from $9.30 to $9.35 and top lambs brought from $9.00 to $9.25. Sales are held at this yard every Friday.

To facilitate reforestation of denuded lands in the national forest of the Lake States, the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, recently broke ground at Rhinelander, Wisconsin, for a new nursery which, in its anticipated, will eventually produce 14,000,000 tree seedlings annually.

MOTHER MARRIED BY SON

Rev. S. H. Cunningham Officiates At Mother's Wedding Here

Rev. S. H. Cunningham, pastor of the Carlisle Christian Church, had a very unique experience last Saturday, when he performed the ceremony which united his mother, Mrs. George C. Cunningham, in marriage to Mr. William E. Rowbottom, both of the home of Rev. Cunningham here. Mrs. Cunningham was a widow of several years, and Mr. Rowbottom likewise a widower for several years. Mr. Rowbottom has been a friend of the family for many years, and is the father-in-law of Rev. Cunningham's sister, who is married to his son, Edwin B. Rowbottom.

The newly weds left for Pittsburgh, Pa., Monday morning where they will make their home, later visiting points east and south.

Mr. Rowbottom is a business man of many years standing, having been in the manufacturing business for many years, and is well known in the Pittsburg district through his business and as a leader in Masonic and other fraternal work.

Rev. Cunningham also stated that he had assisted at his sister's wedding when Edwin B. Rowbottom, and was the officiating minister at the wedding of one of his wife's younger brothers, and later performed the wedding ceremony for her youngest sister.

SUGGESTS SOWING CRIMSON CLOVER

County Agent Mahan Urges Farmers To Sow Seed Now To Replace Clover Destroyed By Army Worms

Many farmers are wondering just how to replace the clover that was destroyed by the army worm this summer. This is a problem as transferred acres of grass and clover were destroyed, and the loss can not be estimated.

County Agent R. J. Mahan is advising farmers to sow crimson clover seed now. Any soil suited to red clover will make an excellent crimson clover.

DR. SMISER GUEST AT LIONS CLUB DINNER

Miss Elizabeth Branaman And Mr. William Conley Give Enjoyable Musical Program

Dr. Harmon Todd Smiser, head of the recently inaugurated Health Unit in this county, was the chief speaker at the regular weekly dinner of the Lions Club at the Methodist church.

Dr. Smiser discussed the purposes of the health unit which embraces sanitation teaching, prenatal training of expectant mothers, preventive measures in the fight against communicable diseases and the treatment of venereal diseases in cases that would otherwise go without treatment because of inability to pay, the co-operation of every agency in the community in the furtherance of this valuable work, which in no way interferes with the practice of local physicians.

A pleasant feature of the evening was a musical program in charge of Miss Elizabeth Branaman and Mr. William Conley.

The program was made of the appointment of the following committees:

Membership—Harry Alexander, W. R. Knight, Dr. O. T. Cowan.

Music—Elizabeth Branaman, Burnell, W. R. Fisher, Allen Hopkins.

Finance—Dr. O. T. Scott, W. T. Parker, F. J. Hardesty.

By-Laws—Dr. O. T. Cowan, E. E. Prinstiel, W. H. Branaman.

Entertainment—Mabel Mullikin, Harry Alexander, R. J. Mahon.

Attendance—L. W. Clark, W. F. Gaunce, W. T. Herndon.

Publicity—Harry Alexander, W. R. Buntin, Paul Darnall.

Publicity—W. R. Fisher, Q. T. Gaunce.

Harrison Farmer, Son Hurt In Motor Crash

Coley Smith and his son, Ernest Smith, 16 years old, Harrison county farmers, were seriously injured Saturday afternoon when the automobile in which they were riding from their home to Paris overturned and was destroyed by fire after it had been struck by another car bearing Mayor Allen Howell and family
