KEEP YOUNG BY WEARING GLASSES

Glasses, when needed, are one of the greatest preservers of youthful appearance, because prolonged eyestrain gives the unmistakable strained, anxious look—far more to be avoided, even the misfortune of spectacles, than any real or fancied "disfigurement" they may cause.

As a matter of fact, the appearance of many types of faces is really enhanced by correct glasses.

Kind Words for White Rose

A gentleman told us this week that he and his wife had decided that from now on they would use nothing but WHITE ROSE Flour. He said it was not only because they had found WHITE ROSE as good or better than any other flour, but that it was nothing but right to patronize a home institution which was striving to serve the community as he knew the makers of WHITE ROSE to be.

We appreciate such expressions as this and every one we hear makes us just a little more eager to make WHITE ROSE just a little bit better if it is possible to do so.

The army worms are here. Hundreds of worms were seen yesterday crossing the road from a rye field on the farm of C. E. Falls. However no damage is reported in the field as it is ripe.

Well, we had two people to tell us in Carlisle Saturday how much they enjoyed reading the news from Stony Creek and that we took to miss a week. It is very encouraging to know that somebody is interested in this little burg, so here goes.

Everybody over said that the call of the primitive is inherent in all of us and once in a while we want to go to the forest primeval and spend a few hours. However, I may be the following invitation to the hills Sunday, leaving at the way of Bryantsville, Camargo and Providence. Mr. and Mrs. Will Rivers and daughter, Mrs. Mrs. B. Brinkly and daughter, Mrs. Alpha and son, Orville, of Nicholasville, Mrs. and Mrs. Luther Brierly and daughter, Elaine, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wallace and son, all of this place. And in a cool, secluded mountain trail where the tall, somber pines stood murmuring in the cool breeze as a lovely plate lunch was served. Doorways in the woods were too much for the combined appetites of the writer is much given to thoughts of the beautiful, when we gazed upon a mountain well. Here ever where lived a beautiful girl. Her eyes were blue as the sky and sweet. We did not learn her name but we did think what a fine picture to draw from to write a romance supplying the story with the characters. Then as the evening shades began to gather over the lovely hills we turned toward home, loaded with beautiful mountain laurel and strode and slowly down the hill of the day as a pleasant memory

RELIGIOUS

PRATHER HALL

Dr. E. Lynwood Crystal will be delivered in Almond, Mich., to deliver baccalaureate address, and later on to perform a wedding ceremony, after which he will go to Red Boiling Springs, Tenn., stopping here on his return for Bible Institute. You are most welcome to meet with us at any time in our study of the Scriptures and weekly observance of the Lord's Supper.

METHODIST CHURCH

P. B. Jones, pastor.

Sunday was a very successful meeting last Sunday evening with Dr. W. L. Clark as preacher and Virgil Silberal leader in song. Those who were not present missed a great treat. Be received into the church next Sunday morning. Others, we trust, will come at this time and take membership with us.

Next Sunday is "Fathers Day." We invite all the fathers at the church to come and bring the wable family and all together in one group.

Sunday school at 9:30. Let us keep up the splendid record made by the school last Sunday.
