NOTICES

Go to the Nicholas Sales Co.'s big sale at the Depot warehouse Saturday at 1 p. m. and get in line for the prizes.

COMING COURT DAY

It's the same $22.50 but look how different it looks at Hechinger's.

$12.50 is a lot of money in this clothing department. It does a lot of things you'd never think possible—in fact, we've shown customers this last month to think we were pushing when we said before them suits, lined with celanese, fabrized of fine worsted, and tailored like high priced suits.

Our stock is now complete with the new suits, overcoats, shoes and furnishings, and we will be at our room at the Curtis Hotel on Monday, Oct. 12th, Court Day, and would like for you to call and see our Mr. Owens.

It is our honest opinion that you will buy one of our new suits when you see the values we offer at $22.50 and $25. Not since 1918 have such values been offered.

We'll be looking for you Court Day.

OBLIGING LANDLADY

"I just kept a little home-brew for the boarders," Mrs. Pearl Martin, Madison, Ind., told Judge A. M. J. Cochran in federal court at Frankfort last week in pleading for clemency on a charge of having sold liquor.

"I've got to do that to keep the boarders?" asked the Court.

The record of Mrs. Martin's cooking was too expensive, so I served home-brew. I didn't sell it."

Mrs. Martin said she was a widow with three children. She received a suspended six months' jail term and $500 fine and probation for five years. She was arrested in Canton, Ky.
