Why GROPE?

—when plenty of light is so inexpensive—

It's so unnecessary to grope about in dark rooms, when it is so inexpensive to put proper lighting in every part of the house. An extra bulb will save many a bumped head, many a stumble in the dark, and many a fire hazard that comes from striking matches.

Open your eyes, grope, then, you head, and tired nerves are the warning signals... and they are to be avoided with adequate illumination. Don't be penny wise and pound foolish where your precious eyes are concerned.
