SENSE AND NONSENSE

Of the last 3,421 years of the world's history 3,113 have been wars.

America ranks 16th among nations in public health.

More than 1,000,000,000 gallons of petrol (gasoline to you) were consumed in England last year.

Four and one-half bushels of wheat, equivalent to 200 pounds of flour, are consumed annually per capita in the United States.

Cooperative associations in Finland now comprise 290,000 members.

The value of the city of Paris, France, according to a survey of its municipal council is $8,320,000,000.

Twenty per cent of the population of Ireland is engaged in fishing.

Two youths are sailing and paddling a canoe from Washington, D. C., to Texas.

Seventeen parties are represented in the parliament of Czechoslovakia.

Piano keys are being made in Italy of zoolite, a casein plastic.

Field mice have high blood pressure—250 heartbeats a minute—which keeps them warm in winter.

New Zealand profits about $300,000 a year on frozen lambs shipped to England.

In a Middle hotel room a guest was drowned in water thrown into his room from a fire hose.

An innocent looking plant concentrate is a weed killer in the home of Jack Peck in Newark, N. J., snapping his fingers over it. He dropped it at a passing motorist who ordered sight and held the latter's attention. The prisoner until the police came.

On Cat Island, one of the Bahama Good Hope, domestic cats hunted loose years ago have developed such ferocity that it is almost impossible to tame them even when captured young.

A 16-inch tarpon was caught on a South Florida golf course.

Cy Whitaker, Beaumont, Tex., golfer claims the longest mashie shot—80 miles! (One that he hated on a green squarely on fell into a mall plane and both did not touch earth until Houston was reached.

At the age of 75 a normal man has eaten, since birth, about 1,500 times his own weight in food.

Frank Jacobs, of Newcastle, Me., has a dog that is an expert roller skater. The animal uses a special skate on the two-wheeled skates.

The police of Prague have been equipped with small trumpets and ordered to use them