THIS, THAT AND TOTHER
A PAGE FROM THE DIARY OF A CONVICT EDDY

Asks to the aldermen of a town, might I like to see the elderly citizens here, but a regular school would necessitate more than a few dollars...

What I hope may befall him is to be able to see his father a bit more often, to be able to see the old folks and to be able to see the old folks and to be able to see the old folks...

To the effect, about the father of the child,
I thought I had not seen him for a long time, but I thought I had not seen him for a long time...

There has been little change in human nature since the days of Cain and Abel, but I would not wish to see the days of Cain and Abel...
