Life for Sale

Good food to eat . . . good clothes to wear . . . good homes . . . books ... flowers ... amusements ... automobiles ... these and a thousand other things that make life richer and more enjoyable are offered to you in the advertising columns of this newspaper.

Suppose some one has perfected a labor-saving device to do away with hours of household drudgery: you would never have heard of it but for the advertisements... Suppose there is a new golf ball . . . a new breakfast food . . . a new kind of towel for the bathroom: you learn about these from the advertisements. All the good things that money can buy come to you through this useful and universal

Watch the advertisements. They contain news just as interesting and important to you as the editorial and news columns themselves news of conveniences, necessities, opportunities for wise and eco-

Advertisements are the record of our times. They will help you make a pleasant and exciting adventure of living.

The Carlisle Mercury

Invite cheerfulness to dark rooms and anvice encertuiness to dark rooms and banish gloom from the family circle by using plenty of electric light in your home.

Avoid eye-strain, bumped shins, bone-breaking falls and sizzling blue cuss words by using plenty of electric light in your home.

Bask in the atmosphere of a warm flood of electric light and enjoy its stimu-lation when you're at home. The bene-fits are great, the cost very small. Remember-

Electricity is cheap!
