GOBBLER WORTH HAVING

(Cynthiana Democrat)
A turkey gobbler belonging to Mrs. J. B. Renaker on the Leesburg road is contentedly setting on twenty turkey eggs and is making just as good a job of it as a turkey hen can.

He has been on the job for two weeks and uses extreme care in getting on and off the nest. Mrs. Renaker, made several attempts to keep him off the nest but her efforts were unavailing and has ceased noticing Mr. Gobbler, and in a short time he will prove whether he really knew what he was about or belongs to that class commonly known as "dumbs."

THE WILD PRIMROSE

(Clinton Scollard)
The sky was sudden gray;
The meadow was wan sand;
The wild primrose that day
Was all the sun I had.

An ingot burnished bright,
It beamed at me and glowed;
It cast a line of light
Along the upland road.

So I forgot my woes.
The heart in me grew glad.
Although the wild primrose
Was all the sun I had.

4H Club

A meeting of the 4-H club of the Moorefield school was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Llewellyn Holmes, one of the club members. The purpose of this meeting was to initiate the new members of the club. William Dudley Judge, president, was assisted by the other officers in the ceremony which was carried out.

After the business was finished County Agent R. J. Matson made a talk. Delilah Robinson told about the activities of the club camp last year at Camp Black Hawk and Llewellyn Holmes gave an account of Junior Week at Lexington.

Mrs. Ernest Robinson leader of the sewing club for the past two years, was presented with a necklace by the club girls.

The visitors present were Mr. Matson, Miss Frances Bonz, of Carlisle, and Mrs. Alvin Seamands, president of the Moorefield P. T A.

The rooms were decorated with green and white, colors of the 4-H club, and refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake were served after which games were played. The next meeting will be held June 9.

Memorial services will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday, May 29, at 2 o'clock p. m. Special songs and prayers, and addresses by the pastors, will be included in the program. All who have friends or relatives buried at Bartlett ville are urged to attend.

WARD HOME DESTROYED

The handsome colonial residence of J. Quinney Ward, executive agent of the Kentucky Anti-Saloon and Fish Commission, three miles from Cynthiana on the Paris pike, was burned to the ground Saturday afternoon with a loss estimated at $15,000. Practically all of the furnishings on the first floor were saved.

The brick residence was built in 1827 by Hiram Miller, great grandfather of Mr. Ward, and had been improved in recent years. It was said to have been one of the most handsome and most beautifully furnished homes in Harrison county.

HOW TO TELL A QUALITY EGG

To tell the quality of eggs break two or three into a flat plate, and note whether the white is thick and stands up around the yolk and stand up around it like a layer of jelly, firm jelly. Then look at the yolk over the plate and appears very large. The eye is poor in quality or somewhat stale, according to poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Put a drop of an egg shows up in cooking. It takes an egg with a good firm white to poach well. High-quality eggs have a lighter sponge cakes and omelets. Of course making cakes and the scrambled eggs, those with slightly watery whites will do very well in the baking and frying. All eggs are good and most of them are very fresh.

Any off odor generally means off flavor, and a bad egg always
