Aftermath
Every American, regardless of party, should find one reason to rejoice in the result of last Tuesday's election. It is the fact that the people have spoken their minds freely and honestly.

Much Better Service at 33% Lower Price
Only twenty years ago—shortly before the World War started—electricity was a sort of curiosity in a majority of homes. Today it is one of the greatest labor-savers and conveniences in housekeeping.

Just compare those electric figures with the average coal-burning average and the average coal-governor figures for the same period of time:
The United States Bureau of Labor Statistics reports coal-burning (food, clothing, shelter, fuel, medical service, etc.) has gone up 40 percent since 1913.
