The Folly Of Too Much Optimism.

It is a pity that so many of our campaigns to win Democrats against the folly of over-optimism are so often so unavailing.

Why Not Sign Your Name?

The Mercury has received two anonymous letters recently, one of which is signed "John Doe".

Hoover Politics Unpopular.

"New York Times." It is evident that the public opinion in this country is turning against the Hoover administration.

As Maine Goes...

Political news from Maine is of interest to all of us. The Maine Legislature is now in session.

The County Fair.

The premium list of the New Britain County Agricultural Fair is held this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Good Old Days" Not So Good.

As the years slip by, silent of foot and ever more slowly it is inevitable to find ourselves saying "I wish I were a boy again."

Small Town Is Necessary.

Two things have come out of the depression that are worth noting. The larger centers of population have discovered that they cannot survive without the smaller cities.

BANY DAZZ.

It is a pity that so many of our campaigns to win Democrats against the folly of over-optimism are so often so unavailing.

CARLISLE MERCURY, CARLISLE, KY., SEPTEMBER 22, 1932

Make It A "Sacred Race."

It is said that the "Sacred Race" of the future will be made up of those who are "sacred" in their own hearts.

How Calvin "Checked" Speculation.

In the early days of the "Sacred Race" speculation was rampant in the Saturday Evening Post.
