CARDS OF CANDIDATES

TO THE VOTERS OF NICHOLAS COUNTY:

During the past several weeks I have visited every section of the county in the interest of my candidacy for County Clerk, but have failed to see a number of voters due to the fact that my duties as County Clerk have kept me in my office so much of the time.

I have endeavored to see all the voters to present my claims, and to those whom I was unable to see I earnestly solicit your vote and influence and assure you that anything you may do in my behalf will be greatly appreciated.

Bertha L. Westfall

CARD FROM D. M. CURRY

To all my friends in Carlisle and Nicholas County:

Owing to the many duties in the Sheriff's office, I have been unable to make as thorough a canvass of the county as I would liked to have made. So to anyone I have failed to see, I want you to know it was due to lack of time. Many times I have tried to serve you to the best of my knowledge in the office you so kindly elected me to in 1929, and I wish to say that if elected Judge of Nicholas County I will endeavor to serve you in the same faithful manner without making any promises to any one but treating everyone in a fair and impartial manner.

Respectfully,
D. M. Curry

TO THE VOTERS OF NICHOLAS COUNTY:

Injuries sustained in an automobile accident several months ago have prevented me from making an active campaign for Coroner, although I have attempted to see as many voters as possible. I have lived in Carlisle for 25 years engaged in the practice of dentistry, and this is the first time I have ever asked for an office. I feel that I have the necessary qualifications to fill the office of Coroner and your vote for me next Saturday will be greatly appreciated.

Dr. N. H. McKinney

FROM OVER THE LINE

(By J. W. Rogers)

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men," maybe in election times. While I am not in the race, what should I do in the way of politics? Ought I to get out now many people voted for him that he had not expected; (2) To get out for some people did not vote for him that he had expected; (3) To find himself elected with a safe majority.

Candidates are well nigh through their never-to-be-forgotten election campaigns. Closing, may they say as Lincoln once did closing his first campaign, "These are my sentiments, and political principles. If elected I shall be thankful; if not, it will be all the same."

Once upon a time an exciting county election was drawing to a close. A man who had several children was running for the office of sheriff. Suddenly one of the little ones asked, "Ma, is it certain that Pa will be elected?" "Yes, my dear, the mother replied. "Then we'll all be little sheriffs now, eh?" retorted the child. Oh, just your Pa and me, thats all."

Something like this I have heard, was a funny thing that enchanted Some Democrats were visiting on a plazza one day, when a funeral of a Negro passed their dismal, unshaved and reeling, strolled on, stopped, and stared at the group of men. Then said one of the Democrats, "I'll bet you a dollar you would probably judge I was a Democrat but I don't. I learned it long before I learned to drink rum."

There is a small scraps of water in Kentucky that empties into the Ohio river near West Point, Ky., and there is very little water in it, and the unpleasantness of which has been thought to much represent the feelings of a defeated candidate, just after an election. We shall soon know how many and who will take a journey up that river in search of future political elevation.

PAUL DARNALL ENDS LIFE WITH REVOLVER AT HIS HOME FRIDAY

Popular County Official Shoots Self Through Heart And Dies Instantly

NO MOTIVE IS KNOWN

County Judge Paul D. Darnall ended his life about 7 o'clock Friday morning by firing the bullet of a 38 caliber revolver through his heart.

The strain of the unusually warm campaign for re-election and the many other duties of his office had overworked Judge Darnall and friends had observed that he had been in a highly nervous condition for the past two weeks, but he had given no intimation that he was despondent, however, and his suicide came as a shock to the entire community.

Judge Darnall had finished breakfast with his family and left the phone rang. Mrs. Darnall answered the call and when she told her husband that one of his friends had called, he went into a small bed room. A minute later when none of his family heard a dull report and heard him fall to the floor, they rushed into the room and Judge Darnall was lying on the floor, dead before a physician arrived at his home.

JUDGE PAUL D. DARNALL

The shock was so great to the Nicholas County Health Department was established here at practically no expense to the county. He was president of the Nicholas county fair association and helped to establish the fair here several years ago and had been one of the most faithful promoters of the event.

No man in Nicholas county labored more diligently for the Democratic party than Judge Darnall. Largely through his efforts the gift of the late Hugh Johnson was accepted by the county and more than any other citizen is due the credit for the continued operation of the Nicholas County Farm, as chairman of the executive committee of the board.

He was vice president of the Kentucky Council of Judges of Counties. He was past master of Dougherty Lodge No. 68, F. & A. M., past high priest of Carlisle Chapter No. 41, R. A. M., past eminent commander of Carlisle Commandery No. 18, of the Lexington Shrine Temple and was a member of the Scottish Rite Masons, Covington, Ky.

Paul D. Darnall was born and reared in Carlisle and was the son of the late Calvin Darnall and Mrs. Mollie Darnall. He was graduated from the Carlisle high school in the class of 1911 and attended the University of Kentucky in Lexington, where he remained for three years as a student in civil engineering. Before his graduation, he took a position as civil engineer for a railroad company, his work carrying him into the Southern and into Mexico. Later he did municipal engineering work in several of the southern states.

For several years he was engaged in the coal, ice, feed and insurance business here established by his father.

In the death of Paul Darnall, Carlisle and Nicholas county have lost one of its most active citizens and one of the community. He was in every respect a Christian gentleman. Loyal to his friends, active in every community and his welfare, Judge Darnall will be greatly missed.

He was an affable, cheerful man, and almost the last person in the community who would have been thought to have even considered suicide. So far as is known he had no worries of any nature. He was perhaps the most popular man in the county and was widely known throughout this section of the state.

Judge Darnall is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lelia Huntsberry Darnall, three sons, Dudley, H. K., and David Darnall, all of Carlisle; his mother, Mrs. Mollie Darnall; one sister, Mrs. M. C. Blair, of Carlisle, and one brother, F. E. Darnall, of Detroit.

Funeral services were held at the residence in Carlisle, Sunday afternoon at four o'clock and were conducted by Rev. Henry Alexander, assisted by Rev. D. T. Brandenburg former pastor of the Presbyterian church here. Burial was in the Carlisle cemetery.

Wheat Reduction Work Under Way

County Agent Matson Answers Questions Concerning The Wheat Reduction Plan

County Agent R. J. Matson announces progress in his work to make effective the Agricultural Adjustment Administration's plan to reduce the wheat acreage in Nicholas county and to make benefit payments to farmers on this year's crop.

Farmers are asking many questions about the wheat plan, some of which with the answers given by County Agent R. J. Matson.

Question: If I come in on the wheat plan, on how many bushels will I receive adjustment payments?

Answer: On 54 per cent of my past average production for the base period. This is your estimated yield on which the payments will be made.

Question: When will I get my cash payments?

Answer: For this year's crop, you will get a payment of 20 cents on each bushel of your allotment this fall, and the remainder after the seeding of wheat in your locality has been completed.

Question: What restrictions does the wheat place on my seeding of the wheat I grow?

Answer: None. The plan has nothing to do with what you can mark your wheat when, where and how you sell it.

Question: If I do not sign up for the wheat plan this year, can I come in later?

Answer: No. This is a three-year plan, and you have to come in next year until after the 1935 crop year.

Question: What will I receive next year and harvested no wheat, can I take part in the wheat plan and receive payments?

Answer: Yes, if you planted wheat this year and harvested no wheat, your allotment is based on past production.

Headquarters road and the Carlisle and Flemingsburg road. It was largely through his efforts that the state highway department has been carried out so extensively in Nicholas. Judge Darnall was a close personal friend of Highway Commissioner A. P. Kemper and other members of the commission.

Through his efforts the Nicholas County Health Department was established here at practically no expense to the county. He was president of the Nicholas county fair association and helped to establish the fair here several years ago and had been one of the most faithful promoters of the event.

Newspaper Publishers Submit Code In N. R. A.

Publishers of the nation's newspapers submitted a code to Hugh S. Johnson Tuesday. The administrator said he had not seen the code and did not know when he would consider it.

The committee of publishers issued the following statement: "If the country at large had kept its employment and payroll on the level of the newspaper industry there would have been no need for any codes at all."

Realty Banks Are Urged To Give Aid

President Roosevelt Asks Aid For Home Owners In Co-operation With U. S. Plan

Realty banks and financing associations were urged Monday by President Roosevelt to join the Administration's campaign "to enable unfortunate home owners to save their homes" from foreclosures.

The Executive's appeal contained in a message to William Stevenson, chairman of the Home Loan Bank board, said private agencies could help by exchanging mortgages for bonds of the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

Roosevelt's Note

The text of his letter follows:

"I desire through you to urge the building and loan associations and homestead associations, and savings banks of the country to render aid in the campaign the Administration is waging to enable unfortunate home owners to save their homes.

"You can do this, first, by showing a sympathetic attitude toward plans for exchanging bonds of the Home Owners Loan Corporation for mortgages on homes and accepting them in cases where they can do so.

"Second, by joining the home loan banks which have been set up to make loan to distressed home owners whose applications are eligible to be accounted in the Home Loan Bank and thus build up a permanent reserve for long-time credit in these institutions and relieve the Home Owners Loan Corporation from the pressure of that class of loans, enabling that corporation to concentrate its resources on relief of those owners whose loans are not eligible.

"These institutions work hand in hand—the corporation being treasurer and designed to relieve pressing and unusual needs, and the banks being permanent and designed to make provisions for current and continuing needs.

"Third, they can aid in developing Lee Federal savings and loan associations now about to be organized by the board, and thereby increase the available capital and launch the plan to be carried by the corporation as membership in one of these associations gives access to the rediscount facilities of the Home Loan Banks.

"Hoping this appeal will be effective and that we will find these great institutions united in a forward movement in the great work before us I am.

"Sincerely yours,
"Franklin D. Roosevelt."

The Home Owners Loan Corporation has $2,000,000,000 in eighteen-year 4 per cent bonds, the interest guaranteed by the Government, which it will trade to mortgage holders for their mortgages on small homes.

The corporation has been pushing the issuance of the bonds.

Masons Ordered To Sell No Beer

Nebraska Masons are under orders not to sell 3.2 beer.

Arthur M. Smith, of Pender, grand master, has issued an edict that no member of the order could sell beer and remain in good standing.

Every blue lodge in the State has received a copy of the edict. Any violation, a member may be ousted from the lodge if found guilty by a Masonic commission.

Beer becomes legal in Nebraska Thursday, and practically all cities of the State were arranging to license its sale.

3,367 BALLOTS CAST IN LAST SATURDAY'S PRIMARY ELECTION

Record Breaking Vote Cast In One Of Closest Primaries Ever Held Here

LEER LEADS TICKET

With 3,367 ballots cast—the largest number of votes ever returned in a Democratic primary race in the county, one of the closest elections held in many years in Nicholas passed into history last Saturday. Shadowed by the tragic death of Judge Paul D. Darnall, which occurred on Friday morning, the fight was fought to a finish in every precinct. There can be no doubt that the death of Judge Darnall had the effect in more than one race. In any event the calculations of political deposters in regard to majorities and results in several races were badly upset.

Sheriff—D. M. Curry, candidate for Sheriff, was the winner by the largest majority, leading his opponent, the late Judge Darnall, by 1,015 votes. Judge Darnall's name was given the complimentary vote of 936 in the precincts where he was not voted on.
