Sage for Sausage

SAGE, PEPPER AND GROUND HOG

MEAT MAKE COUNTRY SAUSAGE

December brings the end of the year and boys it has been a tempestous one. However, no one that we know has starved and everyone that we have seen has had on clothes and except in the hot weather, all have had shoes.

We should be thankful for what we have received.

Christmas and the New Year is a good time to get on friendly terms with everybody and with ourselves. It is hard for a man to be in a good humor with himself if he hates someone else. Christmas and the New Year is a good time to make up with your neighbor and also to make up with yourself.

Sage - Pepper - Salt - Sausage - Love - Laughter - Music - Sunshine - Blowing Winds - Snowflakes - Home—all make up life.

At this time we hope you have had a very Merry Christmas and will have a prosperous and happy New Year.

We greatly appreciate our pleasant business relations with you in the past year and trust they may continue through the coming year. Sign the Burley contract and let us push on and hope for a better 1934.

We are ALWAYS GLAD TO SEE YOU and at this time we are doing "mighty nigh" our best.

George Inako, son of Mr. Wyatt M. Inako, of Carlisle, has been appointed County Agent of Anderson county and has moved from Lexington to Lawrenceburg to assume his duties.

The first snow of the season fell early Tuesday morning and covered the ground. However, it melted quickly before the children had an opportunity to get out their Christmas sleds.

A number of the members of the C. C. C. were given leaves of absence for the Christmas holidays for five days and spent Christmas at home. Practically all of the youths are delighted with the work.

Christmas was celebrated in a more or less boisterous manner here Saturday night with a football game and all his assistants were kept busy. There was more drunkenness than has been seen here for years.

Fire originating in the roof from an unknown cause resulted in slight damage to the home of Ben T. Hinton on Tuesday avenue Monday afternoon. The fire department was called and extinguished the fire.

The few persons who held their turkeys for the late Christmas markets were rewarded with an increase of three cents in price. Dealers Friday and Saturday were paying 15 cents per pound for the poults.

The House of David basketball team defeated the Carlisle Cowboys, local independent team, by a score of 74 to 53 here Tuesday night. The visitors could have scored many more points, and offered practically no defense.

The coldest weather of the winter struck Carlisle and vicinity Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning the thermometers were hovering near zero. The temperature dropped more than 30 degrees during the day and dropped approximately 65 degrees within three days.

Two new pastors will arrive in Carlisle next week to assume their duties the first Sunday in January. Rev. J. J. Thirkhouse, of Columbus, Ohio, will become pastor of the Christian church, and Rev. H. B. Geary, of Augusta, will become pastor of the Baptist church.

Several crops of tobacco have been delivered to the Carlisle market during the past week and the floors here will probably be filled when the markets reopen. No indication has been given as to when the burley markets of the state, closed last week by proclamation of Governor LaFoon, will reopen.

Saturday was the hottest December 23 in this section in history, according to records in the local weather bureau office. The highest temperature recorded during the day was 68 degrees in the shade. The highest previous temperature recorded previously was 65 degrees in 1895.

DUTY

His name ironically rhymes with "beauty."

But public speakers always call him "duty."

Because his job, as countless thousands run,

Is telling people what they ought to do.

A foe to rest, he never takes vacations,

But keeps reminding you of obligations.

So, if you're sipping milk-and-seltzer,

He comes and growls, "Attend to something else, sir!"

A dreary pedagogue, the arch-contriver

Of loathsome tasks, the nagging back seat driver.

Who knows the only road, his pet employment

Is killing sport and innocent enjoyment;

And though by moralists he's highly rated,

I don't see why he ever was created!
