Kentucky Farm Credit Subject Of Bulletin

Who, where and how to borrow money and the kinds of terms they must accept are subjects discussed in a new bulletin published by the Agricultural Department of the University of Kentucky.

C. S. Bradley, of the department, stated that the bulletin is a study of the various methods of financing in the United States and reviewing different types of loans available to the farmer. The bulletin is being prepared in the capital city of Washington, D. C., and is expected to be published in a few days.

SAYING 'NO' HIS DAILY JOB

A former secretary at the White House asked what he considered the most important qualities for a secretary to possess.

He said that the most important quality was the ability to say "no" to the boss. He said that a secretary should be able to refuse a request if it was not in the best interest of the organization.

Blacked Prevalent

The epidemic of influenza is spreading rapidly in this section of the state. It is reported that the disease has been introduced from the East by a party of students who returned from a winter vacation in the mountains.

Let the car speak for itself

HUNDREDS of thousands of people now own and drive Ford V-8 cars.

Some neighbors are a few miles to the gallon—better of them. If you are one of those who think of the car, you might say we are prejudiced, so we let the car and its owner tell you.
