WHY continue to deprive yourself and family of the comfort, convenience and happiness that a telephone in your home affords? When friends say, "I'll call you up," it's embarressing to have to answer "we haven't a telephone." It makes it difficult for your friends to keep up the friendly contacts with you.

To do without a telephone is To do without a telephone is to isolate yourself. Order yours today. The cost is so small that it really doesn't pay to try to do without it.
