RELIGIOUS

PRATHER HALL
The death of the Lord Jesus was different from all others. He did not linger until life ebbed away, but laid down His life while still strong, by committing His spirit to God. No man could take His life from Him, all the weariness and wounds did not exhaust His vitality. No more man could die as He did. Crucified by man at the behest of Satan and abandoned by God, He was the most forlorn and forsaken creature in the universe. Will you believe in and accept Him as your Saviour? Come at 9:30. You are welcome.

Church school services at 9:30. Be on time. Good attendance last Sunday. The new plan is working very satisfactorily. Come and help make it better. Do not forget the request from state authorities to bring your nickel or more for the State Home Children. We are giving our best to make all services spiritual occasions. We are giving our best thought and strength. Is it too much to ask our people to give their best and to fully cooperate in the work. The church with a program and a welcome to all. Come.

Attention, please, by an overwhelming majority the congregation last Wednesday night the decision was to have our morning services begin promptly at 10:30. Let everyone make a special effort to be on time. Please do not stay away from church Sunday night just because your church is not having services. Your pastor regrets that he cannot attend this service but he is compelled to attend a meeting of Shiloh Sunday School Workers.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
S. H. Cunningham, minister.
Services Sunday, June 11th.
10:30 a. m. sermon: "Religion is a Day-as-Dust." This is a Main street sermon. You have often heard it said that religion is such a dry matter. No life, no interest; nothing but dry-as-dust teachers. If you hear this sermon you may see the light of the setting. Special music for the children.
7:30 p. m. sermon: "The Danger of Worshipping Jesus." This is the subject of the sermon for the Union Church service to be held in this church. Rev. Cunningham is preparing to preach on this theme now. "There is danger in worshipping Jesus, strange as it may sound. Jesus never feared his enemies; but He feared being worshipped. If all that seems to be paradox, be sure and hear this message in which I will endeavor to introduce you to a new Truth." Mrs. Cunningham and her pupils, Miss Mildred Brasseur, will probably sing a duet at this service. Young people and senior choir members are urged to unite to help the congregational singing.
9:30 a. m. Bible school for all ages. Graded classes to be ready for opening session at
