THE ROOF

over Your Head
when in good repair
assures good
sound sleep

But a leaky one, oh boy, you just can't sleep and promise yourself you will fix it tomorrow. But to morrow comes, the rain stops, and you put it off again.

Another rain, more leaks, more worry, another promise, but the sun shines again, and why "ain't" your roof no more? But it will, so you can't count down and give an order for enough of those X-XXX Phonic Wood Shingles or Vantage Asphalt Shingles to replace the old worn out roof. You can do it today cheaper than you will later and you would be pleased to give you estimates.
