PRATHER HALL

The Kingdom of God is inward, not outward, not of this world, not of observation. The Kingdom of the Heavens is organic and will reach its consummation when the Messiah of the Israelitish hope comes to earth, once more. It will be Heavenly in nature, but have an earthly dwelling place. The Jews who believed their own Scriptures and held to this hope, were willing to live, but the preaching of John the Baptist, of the disciples and Christ the Messiah of Israel, did not appeal to them. Come at 9:30. You are welcome.

THANKSGIVING

Let us be thankful—not alone because
Since last our universal thanks we've grown greater in the world's applause,
And fortune's never smiles surpass the old—

But thankful for all things that come as alms
From out the open hand of Providence—
The winter clouds and storms—the summer calms—
The sleepless dread—the drowse of indolence.

Let us be thankful—thankful for the prayers
Whose gracious answers were long delayed,
That might fall upon us unawares,
And bless us as in greater need we prayed.

Let us be thankful for the longing eyes
That gave their secret to us as they wept,
Yet in return found, with a sweet surprise,
Love's touch upon their lids, and smiling slept.

And let us, too, be thankful that the tears
Of sorrow have not all been drained away,
That through them still, for all the coming years,
We may look on the dead Lot of Today.
