Notice To Tobacco Growers

On account of the sales holiday requested by the Governor it is indefinite as to when our market will reopen for sales, but if you have tobacco stripped we will be glad to receive and take care of it until the market opens again. Your tobacco will be insured when it reaches our floors and will be given close attention day and night. It might be safer here than in open barns and we are at When the sales open we will have as good a market as any in the state.
