The Store Of Real Values

It's Time To Buy

If you want to save money

The price of coal is advancing and will advance each month until winter, at which time it is hard to predict to what price it will soar.

There are conditions existing in the coal industry which are likely to become serious toward fall and it is for this reason we are advising our customers to protect themselves by 'laying in' their winter supply now.

And don't forget the 3% sales tax which, if passed, will be effective July 1st. Save this too.
