State To Retain Its 16 CCC Camps

The fourth period of the citizens conservation corps camps will open in Kentucky October 1, with William R. Jackson, state forester, announced. He estimated that the federal government would spend more than $500,000 in Kentucky during the six months' period, forestation and flood control.

The state will retain its 16 CCC camps—nine erosion or flood-control camps in western Kentucky and seven forestation camps in the eastern part of the state. Each camp will have about 200 men, including state supervisory personnel and enrollees.

We are obtaining splendid results from the programs," Forester Jackson remarked. He added that Kentucky has been cooperated satisfactorily with the forestation and flood-control programs instituted by the Roosevelt administration in June 1933.

Three of the erosion-control camps are completed and ready for occupancy. They are at Dixon, Marion and Madisonville. Enrollees in the other camps are now working on the program of building truck trail, telephone lines and fire observation towers. The forest camps also paint the state department of forestry in flashing forest fires.

Farmers To Ballot On A.A.A. Program

Kentucky farmers will have an opportunity between now and October 12 to express their opinions of the corn-hog production program in a statewide poll, A.A.A. officials at the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, announced Saturday.

Local corn-hog control committees will conduct the poll and submit the following questions to signers of the corn-hog contracts:

"Do you favor an adjustment program dealing with corn and hogs in 1935?

"Do you favor a one-contract-per farm adjustment program dealing with grain and livestock, to be effective in 1935?"

A total of 22,250 farmers have signed corn-hog contracts and will receive approximately $1,500,000 in benefit payments, according to C. D. Phillips, administrative assistant for the program.

Marriages Ruled Out At Mortician's Place

Greenup, the little Gretna Green for couples from Ohio and West Virginia, which for years has been the busiest marriage spot in that it has 1,200 population, will have no more wedding ceremonies, C. O. Black's "undertaking parlors."

The undertaker who performs no such ceremonies himself, announced that he was closing his doors to all prospective brides. He explained that for some time he had been the use of his parlors for ceremonies due to the outskirts of the town, but that he had been accepted of late that it had decided to quit it.

He estimated that more than 400 wedding ceremonies have been performed at his place, with the assignment to young couples as well as to the "runners" who came to be across them upon arrival in Greenup.

Lexington To Be Center For Tobacco Payments

The Farm Administration at Washington announced Thursday that a branch of the A.A.A. compensation office would be opened at Lexington to expedite payment of tobacco acreage adjustment checks.

Checks and payments will be made at the Lexington office of all checks for burley, Western dark air-cured and dark fired tobacco, the announcement said. The administration said the first adjustment payments to be distributed through this office, amounting to approximately $6,000,000 to about 140,000 tobacco growers, largely in Kentucky, will be made on October and November.

Minister Badly Beaten By Trio In Bath County

Two men were under arrest Tuesday and a warrant was issued for a third on charges of beating and severely injuring Rev. Oscar Hatton, pastor of Blevins Valley Christian church, six miles from Owingsville in the southeastern section of Bath county.

The three, Roscoe Causley, 26; his brother, W. J. Causley, 24, and Cecil McNabb, all of the Preston section, were said to have been reprimanded by the minister for creating a disturbance during services at the church Sunday night. The attack occurred at the close of the services after Rev. Hatton started home in his automobile. Wires in the car had been cut, however, and as it rolled to a stop at the foot of the hill the minister was dragged out on the road by the three men.

The trio attacked him with clubs, officers said they were told. Rev. Hatton suffered fractures of three lower intercostal injuries and physicians said his condition was serious.

The Causley, sons of Buford Causley, were arrested by Deputy Sheriffs T. H. Duff and Clark Rogers and taken to jail at Owingsville.

Two Get Top Prices On Lexington Livestock Sales

That R. L. Norton, Nicholas county tobacco grower and seed producer of Carlisle, did not confine the price he receives to his tobacco crop alone was indicated when he sold a registered a top price of $7.65 per hundred for a veal calf he sold in the yards of the Lexington Livestock Commission Company Lexington, the only two-day market yards in Kentucky outside of Louisville.

F. E. Clay, also of this county, was another consignor in the sales at Lexington's yards this week, selling 12 lambs for $7 per hundred.

TWO YOUTHS FOUND DEAD

Two youths, identified as William Bailey, 17, and Chester Hamilton, 17, both of Lebanon, Ky., were found dead early Sunday morning near the L. & N. Railroad tracks two miles south of Shelby City, Lincoln county. The bodies were found eight feet apart under some bushes, their clothing turned inside out. Officers believed they had been murdered for a slight wound on Hamilton's forehead. The bodies bore no marks of violence. The theory has been advanced that they were thrown from a train.

THE NEW ELECTRIC RANGE
Designed for Kentucky Homes by Kentucky Women . . .
Her

NOW you can have that electric range you've always wanted. A full-sized range, built more ruggedly—and more beautifully finished—than the most expensive electric ranges of a year or two ago.

The Kentucky Cardinal was designed to fit the times. Kentucky women told what they wanted in an "electric"—and this beautiful, efficient range is our answer.

It has the automatic features Kentucky women want — Built-in Watchman thermostat for direct oven temperature control—speedy Quick-Cook Units — and a most convenient, high, elevated oven which banishes back-breaking bending.

The convenient radio-type dial on the oven top permits oven temperature settings from 200° to 500° Fahrenheit, with easy, quick adjustments as close as 5 degrees.

We urge you to come to our showroom — witness a demonstration of this modern electric range. Our low price, easy terms and our new "2¢ range-step" takes electric cookery out of the luxury class and makes it common-sense thrift.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR OPENS THIS MORNING FOR 3 DAYS, NIGHTS

Annual Free Fair To Be Held In Farmers Warehouse Remainder Of Week

IS BIGGER AND BETTER

Nicholas county's free agricultural fair will open this morning at 10 o'clock in the Farmers warehouse for three days session. All booths have been erected and decorated and the event this year promises to be the best ever held.

The exhibits in the field crops, garden, fruit, home department, poultry, flowers, 4-H Club, Future Farmers, Rural schools will be on display today.

A feature of the fair tonight will be the entertainment to be given in the redryer room by the following twins, Roland Gains and Garner Brake, radio artists, assisted by other novelty entertainers.

Following the program by the Yodeling Twins and string band Thursday night, a square dance will be held in the redryer. The music will be furnished by the string band, and admission to the contest will entitle all to the square dance.

On Friday night a dance will be given in the redryer room. Music for the dance will be furnished by the Doodle Bockres Orchestra. The hours will be 9 to 2

On Saturday night at 8 o'clock, the annual old fiddlers contest will be held in the redryer room in the court house.

Although the Nicholas County Health Department will maintain a health booth at the fair, the babies will be examined in the health department offices in the court house in the warehouse. At the health offices waiting rooms and conveniences are provided, for the mothers. Awards will be made at the warehouse on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Mabel Whitehead, County Health Nurse, assisted by local physicians, will be in charge of the better babies contest.

Exhibits to be examined and rated entered in health points, including Boy babies will be judged on Thursday afternoon from one to four o'clock and girl babies on Friday afternoon from one to four. All babies in the county between the ages of six and eighteen months are eligible to enter.

Another feature of the fair on Friday will be the baking contest for pieces.

A new policy in the payment of premiums will be inaugurated this year, premiums will be paid as soon as the ribbons are tied and winners are asked to collect at the office. As soon as the congestion incident to the posting of all premiums on Saturday, has passed all will be paid on Saturday, as usual.

County Agent R. J. Mason is general superintendent of the fair. Assistant superintendents of the fair are company. George D. Scott and Chris Caywood are vice presidents, E. C. Vaught is secretary and treasurer; J. Z. Lee advertising manager and Miss Mary Hayes, assistant manager.

Following are heads of the various departments: Crops, M. Rhodes Burton, and Mrs. Frank Henry; livestock department, Mrs. Frank Henry; cooking, Mrs. Bruce Ruffstetter; sewing, Mrs. Bruce Ruffstetter, and Mrs. Russell Shrout, assistant; canning and preserving, Mrs. R. C. Vaught, and Mrs. O. C. Grover, assistant; 4-H club sewing, Mrs. Floyd Clark, and Miss Thelma Linville, assistant; garden and fruit department, George D. Scott, Jr., and Lovell Hollar, assistant; rural school department, Mrs. Rita S. Taylor; Junior Agricultural Club, R. J. Mason; livestock, John Wilson, and Walter Atkinson, assistant; poultry, Homer Smith, and E. T. Gaffin; and Miss Jennie Pauline McCracken, assistants; flowers, Miss Anna M. Howe, and Mrs. W. T. Talbert, assistant; Future Farmers, O. B. Leonard; baby show, Mrs. Ida Mae Hutchison, and Mrs. Charles Lee, and Clyde Sexton, assistant.

There is a certain appeal about the county fair that no other event possesses. It may be an interest in fine field crops. It may be an attraction for better livestock; it may be the attraction of the products which the housewives of our community produce, or it may be a longing for companionship and an opportunity to mingle for a few hours with one's neighbors and friends. Surely it must be a combination of all of these that makes the county fair different from any other form of entertainment, and which preserves its popularity from year to year.

Reed Will Not Take Office Till January

Stanley Reed, of Maysville, who was recommended for the federal judgeship in the eastern district of Kentucky, will probably not assume his duties as such before January of the year, according to Senator Logan.

Logan said: "I talked with Mr. Reed, and I believe that before he will have his affairs wound up here it will be two months. Then, too, he naturally does not want to try any cases before his appointment has gone through officially or before it will have been confirmed by the senate."

The senator said he considered it extremely unlikely that Reed would discontinue his services as general counsel of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in an abrupt manner and then assume his duties as judge on a temporary status pending the senate's confirmation of his appointment.

Logan stressed that he "naturally was not speaking for Reed," but that he had gathered that Reed would wait until January.

County Campaign Of Churches Ends

122 Persons Unite With Christian Churches During Ten Weeks Campaign

More than a thousand people packed the auditorium of the Carlisle church and overflowed into the Sunday school rooms to hear the sermon delivered to be the largest and most representative assembly of members of the church in the history of the city's history of Nicholas county.

The meeting marked the climax of the county campaign and was the first of a series of Sunday following additional sessions, including the short wave stations of Kentucky and Tennessee, broadcast by the Christian churches to send this solo and a sermon to the "shut-ins" of the county.

Following the meeting at the church, the "Restoring the Fellowship of the Apostolic church," Dan Yeuell, president, Mrs. J. W. Burhanan, Guy Neal, Blair Stephenson, Mrs. Stephenson, C. Sellers, Lee Neal, Willie Vice and Howard Veach, were appointed elders of the church in the county. Mr. Wells said that the present campaign was unquestionably the most fruitful effort that had been made in the county. Mr. Neal said that the spirit of sharing which had been developed will prove a blessing to the church in the future. He expressed great joy and satisfaction in the results of the campaign and pledged themselves to cooperative work in the future.

The county campaign was preceded by a two weeks' campaign of Bible school conducted by Evangelist Hyden Hall and his wife. The attendance at the Bible school reached a total of 1,000 on the last day.

A track and field meet is scheduled for Saturday morning on Gold Belt, sponsored by the department of extension and physical education.

Tournament participants will be pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the rural schools. An attendance of approximately 1,500 is expected.

Counties which have won in registrations are Anderson, Bell, Boone, Boyle, Bracken, Clark, Fleming, Garrard, Grant, Grayson, Harlan, Henry, Jessamine, Kenton, Lawrence, Lewis, Lincoln, Montgomery, Montgomery, Nicholas, Shelby, Trimble and Whitley.

PRODUCTS BONUS PAYMENT

Declaring no man who heard him would live to see the national budget balanced, U. S. Senator Arthur Robinson, of Indiana, in an address at the national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States in Louisville Tuesday predicted that the bonus will be paid in three years and promised that he would never cease fighting until the national economy act is repealed.

Robinson addressed the closing session of the convention, which was attended by many times people were turned away for lack of room. There were 12 additions to the membership of the church.

In the county campaign, as a whole, there were 122 additions, four churches without regular preaching called ministers, one closed church was opened and Bible school organized and mid-week meeting established. A county organization was organized. Funds were raised to begin the renovation of the Concord meeting house as a county church, and a new spirit of sharing is evident throughout the county.

LAFFOON AGREES TO CONTRIBUTE $250,000 FOR OCTOBER RELIEF

Chief Executive Says Investigation Of Abuses Must Be Made By Wilcox

WORK RELIEF STOPPED

The Kentucky Relief Commission, after an all-day meeting at Louisville Monday decided on a policy of giving relief only "as required to avert actual suffering."

The commission's instructions canceled the work relief program over the state as of last Thursday night, and ordered that all tools and supplies owned by the Kentucky Emergency Relief Administration be collected and shipped. This temporarily leaves workers were paid $439,275 during August.

The commission also drafted a plan by Governor Laffoon asking that for October only, and pending a report from the investigation being under way in the state, the Louisville Courier-Journal said, $250,000 be turned over to the New Jersey relief commission. It is expected to be made, New York authorities have announced.

Prisoner Had Key To Jail

Key Found In Shoe Of Robert McCall After He Is Incited Officers To Arrest Him

What officers believe was a plot for a jail delivery was discovered last Friday afternoon when a key to the jail was found in the shoe of a man held in custody at the jail. The key was found in possession of Robert McCall, of the Myers Station section of the county, following his arrest on a charge of being drunk.

The key was found concealed in McCall's shoe, officers said, when searched him thoroughly. How he got into possession of the key is a mystery. Deputy Sheriff Jailer Ben Geddes said that he had lost no key since he has been Jailer. The key is of the small size, four inches long and almost half an inch in diameter.

Friday afternoon McCall called Sheriff J. Clarke Lee on the telephone, told him he was drunk and invited the officer to come and get him. Deputy Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff Burton accepted the invitation and found McCall waiting for them at Myers. He willingly accompanied them to jail. The officers received a tip that McCall had boasted that he had a key to the jail and was going to let all by the prisoners out.

In county court Monday morning, Judge Curry fined McCall $30 and costs on a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct and $20 and costs on a charge of assault and battery. Both fines were paid by McCall, who was released from jail.

It is said the grand Jury is investigating the alleged possession of the key and additional charges may be placed against him.

Musketeers Win Opening Game

Carlisle High Defeats Georgetown By Score Of 14-0 Here Friday Afternoon

The Carlisle high school Musketeers opened their football season of the season here Friday afternoon, defeating Georgetown high 14 to 0 on the local field. The game was a Central Kentucky conference game.

The Musketeers were easily the best in the game, and held the ball in the territory of the visitors most of the game. Carlisle made 8 first downs to the nine visitors made but two.

Although most of the team were starting as regulars for the first time, they showed good coaching by the end of the season Coach Shearer should have one of the best elevens he has put on the field.

Smart scored first for the Musketeers on a beautiful run around left end for the first touchdown of the game. Bishop went over for the second. Both Smart and Bishop scored the other marker on line plunges. Smart and Lawrence made the extra point.

The line-ups:

Carlisle	Pos.	Georgetown
Conway	LE	Robinson
Bishop	LT	McClain
Blount	LG	Mallory
Hall	C	Van Arsdall
Molloy	RG	Dewers
Galbraith	RT	Glass
Boss	RE	Porter
Smart	QB	McLaughlin
Lawrence	LH	Carroll
Bishop	RH	Gaines
Lawrence	FB	Gaier

The next game here is with Clinton high, Friday, October 5, at 2:30.

New Evidence In Lindbergh Case

Alleged Accomplice Said To Have Confessed Holding Ladder For Hauptmann

The latest development in the Lindbergh baby kidnapping case was announced Wednesday morning by the Newark, N. J., Ledger, which said the newspaper had exclusive information that an accomplice of Bruno Richard Hauptmann is being held incommunicado by the New York police, and that this man, has confessed he held the ladder for Hauptmann when the Lindbergh baby was stolen from its crib at Hopewell, N. J., on March 1, 1932.

Governor Harry A. Moore, of New Jersey, said Tuesday that New Jersey expected to complete its investigation of Bruno Richard Hauptmann within a few days, and added, "I am satisfied we can convict him" on a charge of killing the Lindbergh baby. The New Jersey has enough evidence against Hauptmann to bring a conviction.

Hauptmann, who was arrested in New York on September 19, is charged with having extorted $50,000 from Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, famous flier, by means of a ransom letter. Another letter was made that Mr. Mathison be employed for next year, which lost by the same vote. The report then unanimously voted to do for the selection of a county agent, and the last meeting.

J. W. Smith was reelected superintendent of the Nicholas county infirmary for the year beginning March 1, 1935, by unanimous vote of the court. There were no other applicants for the position.

By unanimous vote, the court voted to advertise for sale on Saturday, October 20, the properties of E. C. Platt, Tom and Katie Hughes and Lawrence Patton, all of which are now owned by the county.

By unanimous vote, Mrs. Eleanor H. Davis was allowed $662.50 for balance on right-of-way through her land.

The court voted to allow J. D. Hall $25 monthly for right-of-way through his land near Pleasant and Valley on the Carlisle-Flemingsburg road. Magistrates Gillispie and Bowen voted for the allowance, while Magistrate Reed opposed it. Magistrates Allison and Booth declined to vote. Mr. Hauptmann had been allowed damages of $25 by appraisers.

The court unanimously approved a number of contracts for right-of-way made with landowners on the new paved road from Sumner Roost to the Bourbon county line.

COURT DECLINES TO RE-EMPLOY MATSON AS COUNTY AGENT

Vote Is 3 To 2; Action Finally Deferred Until Next Meeting Of Court

SMITH IS RE-ELECTED

By a vote of 3 to 2, the Nicholas county fiscal court Tuesday declined to reemploy R. J. Mason as County Agent for next year. The court voted unanimously, however, to employ a county agent for next year but reduced the appropriation to $900 per year.

A motion that Mr. Matson be reemployed at a salary of $100 per month was lost by a vote of 3 to 2, Magistrates Reed and Booth voting for reappointment of Mr. Matson, and Magistrates Allison, Bowen and Gillispie against him.

Another motion was made that Mr. Matson be employed for next year, which lost by the same vote. The report then unanimously voted to do for the selection of a county agent, and the last meeting.

Girl Attacked By 13-Year-Old Boy

Miss Letitia McIntyre, Of Paris Rinses By Assault Fought For Half An Hour

Miss Letitia McIntyre, 21, daughter of William McIntyre, who resides on the Georgetown road just over the line in Harrison county, was seriously injured last Thursday afternoon when she was attacked by an assault her at her father's home. Clarence Lisville, 13, was later arrested Friday and lodged in jail at Cynthiana, charged with the assault. When arrested the boy's face was bruised and scratched.

Miss McIntyre was bitten dozens of times by the boy. Two fingers on her left hand and thumb on her right hand were mangled by the assailant's teeth. One finger on finger on her left hand was broken. Numerous similar mutilations were inflicted on the body. Lacerations were a dozen wounds on her legs she was taken to the home of her uncle, Arthur Ratliff, in Paris, where she received medical attention.

Miss McIntyre stated that Conley came to her home about 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when she was alone and asked for something to eat. Going to the kitchen the girl says he pushed her into the kitchen and locked the door. Once inside, Miss McIntyre says, according to the girl's statement, he struck her on the head and beat her about the face and body with his fists.

$180,000 State Warrants Called For Payment

The Commonwealth took steps Friday to cut down its floating debt of $18,546,401.38 when a call for retirement of $180,000 of interest-bearing warrants issued against the general expenditure fund seven years ago was issued by State Treasurer Elam Huddleston. He announced that warrants numbered from A-130 to A-458, inclusive, will be redeemed. Interest on the warrants will cease October 9.

The 1934 special session of the Legislature, after passing a 2 per cent sales tax, appropriated $1,600,000 a year for payment of the principal and interest on the floating debt.

The call was the third issued during the administration of Gov. Ruby Laffoon for retirement of interest-bearing warrants against the general fund. In December, 1932, a call was issued for $141,000 and in January, 1934, another call was issued for $150,239.51. These two calls covered all outstanding interest-bearing warrants issued by July 8, 1927. The $180,000 call will retire all the warrants up to August 1, 1927.
