SEVEN MEETINGS LAST DAY OF FARM AND HOME MEETING

Seven meetings, covering as many phases of farming and home-making, will feature the opening days of the 22nd annual Home and Farm Meeting at Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky., today.

Dr. J. H. Hays, president of the meeting, will preside at the opening ceremony at 10 o'clock. The program will include a lecture by Dr. Hays on "The Home and Farm Meeting," and a report by Dr. Hays on the work of the Home and Farm Meeting.

The Home and Farm Meeting is a joint venture of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, and the University of Kentucky, Lexington. It is held annually in Lexington, Ky., and is one of the largest and most important of the state's annual meetings.

During The Holidays Our Sales Were Good

In fact they were better than have been since 1930. . . . Our sales were good because of the carrying of the best to be had in wearing apparel for men has a great deal to do with the steady growth of our sales. We like to think that our customers think of us as the "Home of Better Clothes."
