Personals

Estill Hughes, a member of the Senior class, is leaving this week to enter Christian Normal School at Grayson, at which place his mother is house matron. We are sorry to lose him from class.

Edward Pumphrey completed his high school course the first semester. He will return to school in time to participate in the commencement exercises in May.

Marie Hunter, a member of the Junior class, underwent a tonsil operation Monday morning at the local hospital. She is improving rapidly, and we shall be glad to welcome her back to school.

Genevieve Westfall, member of the Sophomore class, is again able to resume her school work after an extended illness. We are glad to have her back with us.

The Glee Club has begun practicing the special number which it will sing in competition with the other schools of the district. This contest will be held April 5th at Maysville.

Lela and Paul Vinson have been absent from school several days on account of the mumps.

Religious Education Classes

The Religious Education classes this year are studying a booklet entitled "Bible Study in Modern Times." This is a study of some of the great characters of the Bible and the lessons they have for modern youth. The next lesson has to do with Moses, the great leader and law giver of the Hebrews.

Home Nursing Class

Seventeen Junior and Senior girls are enrolled in the class in home nursing which is taught by our local health nurse, Miss Ethel Whitehead. This is a very practical and useful course, and much interest is being taken.

Educational Films

The regular educational films were shown Friday. First of these had to deal with the care of the teeth, and showed many interesting pictures of dangerous microbes and gave in picture form the efforts made by the great physicians of the past and their discoveries in relation to modern health problems. The second reel had to deal with the beauties of the Canadian Northwest, especially Vancouver city.

Lesson for February 3

PETER'S RESTORATION

LESSON TEXT—Mark 14:17; Luke 22:24-62; John 13:21-38; 21:15-22.

GOLDEN TEXT—He said unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. John 21:17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—When Jesus Helped Peter Try Again.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Peter Learned When He Failed.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Prevent and to Cure Backsliding.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Test of Loyalty.

As there were seven definite steps in Peter's downfall, so there are seven definite steps in his restoration. These steps in both his downfall and his restoration were most strikingly presented by G. Campbell Morgan at the Bible conference in Northfield in 1926.

I. Christ's Prayer for Peter (Luke 22:31, 32).

Little did Peter realize the feelings through which he would be forced to pass. Christ revealed to him that he had prayed for him that his faith in Christ and his blasphemous words of denial, while at the same time deepening Christ's love and pity.

II. Christ's Message Conveyed Through the Women (Mark 16:7).

The Lord's message was "Go tell my disciples and Peter." Had the message merely been, "Go tell my disciples," Peter would have believed himself not included. The message indicated that Christ had particular consideration for him and loved him still. What new hope filled Peter's heart as he heard this message from the risen Lord is seen in his words: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" (1 Pet. 1:3).

IV. A Personal Interview With the Risen Lord (Luke 24:34).

The declaration is here made that the risen Lord had appeared to Simon. The nature of the conversation is hidden in mystery. It may be that the Lord reminded him of his boasting and confidence, his warning himself against the enemies' fire and his blasphemy, but only to assure him of his unchanging love and that the Cross which he shunned was the very means of covering up his grievous sin (Luke 24:34).

Peter's Open Confession of Love (John 21:15-17).

The disciples had gone back to their fishing. As they returned weary and empty Christ appeared to them to break their fast. In connection with this miracle of providing food and warmth, Jesus, by skillful questions, induced Peter to confess his three fours. A further step in Peter's restoration was to commission him, since his love for his Lord had returned. It was the fire of the coals around his Lord should now warm his heart, since his love for his Lord should now burn for his Lord.

VI. His Work Given Back (John 21:17, 18).

Instead of putting new Peter on probation before giving him anything to do, he immediately brought him back into fellowship with the Lord in service. It was because Peter passed satisfactorily the examination and the Lord saw his real love for him that he particularly Peter to begin his work.

VII. Willingness to Suffer for Christ (John 21:18, 19).

While Peter had now openly reinstated Christ and had received at the Lord's hands his work, he needed to be made willing to drink the bitter cup of suffering for his Lord. Jesus made it clear to him that he was to follow his Lord in crucifixion. He was now willing to suffer the shame of the cross for the glory of God. Peter, with the other disciples, later counted it joy that they were counted worthy to suffer (Acts 5:41). It was the Cross of Christ over which Peter blundered. After his restoration his greatest happiness was to suffer for Christ's sake.
