RHEA CHILDREN WANT 'DAD' FOR NEXT GOVERNOR AND ALL HAVE GOOD REASONS

The Rhea family group, left to right: Mrs. Thomas S. Rhea, seated at the right; Mrs. Rhea, Jr.; Mr. Rhea; Albert G. Rhea, 111, 13 and Miss Lillian Rhea, 15.

Here's a question for the boys and girls of Kentucky: "If you had a say making the race for Governor why would YOU want him to win?". Could you give your reasons in a hurry? The children of Thomas S. Rhea, of Russellville, applied for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, found no difficulty in supplying their answers promptly. Here they are:

Ballard C.—I would like to see daddy Governor because he is honest and always keeps his promise and then he would make a good Governor.

Albert G.—Anything my dad wants, I want him to have.

Lillian—I would like to see dad Governor because I know that he deserves the greatest honor that can be bestowed on him.

Tom, Jr.—Dad has spent his life helping other people. I would like to see him get something for himself.

Engineered For Men, Styled For The Ladies---

Men instinctively appreciate the 1935 V-8 FORD. Its abundant energy, obedient to the driver's slightest wish. Its simple mechanism beautifully synchronized, designed, built and assembled for dependability and efficiency.

To a woman it is a thing of alluring beauty, of smooth flowing lines, of luxurious comfort and exquisite appointments. It is a car that she loves to drive—a background of smartness, good taste, dash and spirit—all those thrilling things put a touch of pride in her voice when she says, "My car."

Would you like to see and drive this distinctly modern and beautiful car? You may, by simply stopping in and saying, "I am ready when you are."

Possession of the property will be given August 15 and Rev. Warner P. Dayis, presiding elder, and his family will move to the property about September 1.

Social and Society

ODE ON SOLITUDE

(Alexander Pope)

Happy the man, whose wish and care
A few paternal acres bound,
Content to breathe his native air
In his own ground.

Whose herds with milk, whose fields with bread,
Whose flocks supply him with attire,
Whose trees in summer yield him shade,
In winter fire.

Blest, who can unconcernedly find
Hours, days and years, slide soft away,
In health of body, peace of mind,
Quiet by day.

Sound sleep by night; study and ease
Together mixt, sweet recreation;
And innocence, which most does please
With meditation.

Thus let me live, unseen, unknown,
Thus unlamented let me die,
Steal from the world, and not a stone
Tell where I lie.

FOWLER

Mr. Edgar Fowler, well known driver of the Little Rock section, died at his home Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock, after a brief illness. While loading livestock at his farm Saturday, Mr. Fowler suffered an injury which developed in'o blood poisoning.

Mr. Fowler was a native of North Carolina, but had lived in Kentucky most of a long period of many years. He was engaged in farming and latterly was a truck dealer where he was engaged in business. About ten years ago he moved to the farm at which he died.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nannie Fowler; three sons, Ben, W. H. Wells and Kenneth Fowler; two daughters, Mrs. Joe Bedford and Miss Mary Catherine Fowler, all of the Little Rock section, and two sisters, Mrs. Will Scott, of Bourbon county, and Mrs. George Broach, of North Carolina.

Funeral services will be held at the home in the family lot in the Carlisle cemetery Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Currell, of Little Rock.

YOUR LIFE AT STAKE

During 1934, accidents of all kinds caused 101,000 deaths and 9,000,000 total on record—in addition to almost 10,000,000 non-fatal injuries.

Accidents are responsible for more deaths in persons between the ages of one and nineteen than any other cause. Among persons of all ages, accidents cause more deaths than do accidents.

These are facts that should make the public pause, think and remember. The waste of accidents, both in lives and materials, is complete and needless. Most of them can be repaired. And it is almost entirely unnecessary.

Of all forms of accidents, those caused by the automobile are the most serious. Between 1913 and 1934 motor vehicle deaths increased from 4,227 to 36,000 a year, while other kinds of accidents dropped from 78,233 to 65,000. That is largely due to the increased number of cars in use—but the fact remains that at present motor accidents per thousand cars in operation are 10 times as great as they were in 1913.

We are on the rise. The reckless driver is becoming more reckless—the careless driver is becoming still more careless. Because of it, we have more of a menace to all who use the streets and highways. The automobile accident record is in striking contrast to that of aviation, which has progressed in the face of adverse factors remarkably.

The war on accidents is every citizen's war, and every citizen should "join the colors." Thousands of lives, by say nothing of billions of dollars, are at stake—and your life and your dollars are among them.
