Wendling Confessed, Is Newspaper's Claim

The Louisville Times says Joseph Wendling obtained his release from Eddyville state penitentiary in January by signing a full confession of the murder of 8-year-old Alma Kelley, the crime for which he served 24 years of a life sentence.

Wendling was deported to France shortly after he was paroled. His deportation was the other condition of the parole, the Times said.

"This strange parodox of freedom in return for a murder confession," the Times said, "came about thus:

"Wendling's eligibility to parole depended on the attitude of the family of the slain child. As long as they blocked it, no governor could grant it. When the parole was finally approved, it was announced that two conditions had been fulfilled; one that arrangements had been carried out for immediate deportation; the other condition was not stated."

This condition, the newspaper said, was a full confession of the crime to Frank Petit, a Louisville lawyer, made to him chill and spoke-man for the family.

Family Autogyro Is Due Before Long

In the near future the family autogyro may be taken from the garage on a Sunday, hitched to its private blades "unfolded" and take off for a ride around the countryside. Uncle Sam is furnishing the financial backing for the development of a low cost windless plane of the gyro type, motor wings that fold back. Here we are looking down on the folded rotors. The plane embodies most improvements of the safety type and eliminates many things that have kept the average man from flying.

BALD HILL
This church stands for the union of all believers on a basis of Holy Scriptures. The Old Testament was written for our instruction, the New Testament for doctrine, faith and practice in worship. A church which follows the New Testament instructions on elders, deacons, communion, giving, form of worship, spirit in worship, music, and living can not be divided. Christians should be divided, on the New Testament but on catechisms, confessions, and creeds of man's invention. There will never be union only on the Word of Truth, the gospel of our salvation, as found in the New Testament. A series of sermons explaining our plea will be conducted at the church by Max Quirey of Winchester, beginning Sunday morning, June 30. Come and hear him.

BAPTISTS TO HOLD ALL REGULAR SERVICES

Due to the handicap under which the church has had to work during the first half of the year, the Baptist church voted last Wednesday evening to continue all the regular evening services throughout the summer and not to go into the union services as heretofore. There is nothing but a spirit of good will up on the part of Baptists for all churches of the town but it is felt that the work needs the re-enforcing that regular services will give. A campaign for more intense training union work is to be launched and the fifty at prayer meeting idea will be carried on through the summer. They ask that friends in other churches and of the town think carefully through the matter and help by actively criticise the church for its recent action.

We will join the special service Wednesday evening at Christian church to hear Dr. Rose, the leader of young people in the Kiwanis dry campaign. Methodists we are counting on you to be there. You are invited to all services.

PRATHER HALL
Paul's method for evangelizing the world was for each one as soon as he learned all and believed in the crucified, risen Lord to tell the story to some one else and we may be sure that Paul practiced what he took any thing without the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Lord Jesus told his disciples that when the effusion or gospel of the kingdom should be preached in the whole inhabited earth for a testimony to all the nations, then should the end come. Matt. 24:4.

The Samaritan were a mongrel race, a mixture of Jews, and gentiles. Jews recognized the relationship and wanted to save them too. After the pure-blooded Jews rejected Him. Cornelius was a proselyte to the Jewish faith before Peter was commissioned to go to preach to him. It is quite evident also that the Ethiopian was a "Jewish" proselyte, for there were many Jews settled in his country after the dispersion, and it is not surprising that he did not understand the scriptures, when the Pharisees, scribes and lawyers were ignorant of them that they did not recognize their King in Jesus, but repudiated and crucified Him. You are welcome to worship with us.

BAPTIST CHURCH
R. H. Sears, pastor.
A very special service will be held Sunday morning at the regular hour of the church are urged to be present. The pastor's message of the morning will be, "How Much I Love His Church. It is hoped that we will let nothing interfere with this service and that it will be a reunion of the entire force of our church.

Daily Vacation Bible School begins Monday July 8. All children are invited to attend as usual. Plans are under way for a good school. Boys and girls through the intermediate age are welcome. There is very first day and go through the week.

Remember all regular services throughout the entire summer. We will go on with our night services as usual. Rev. Coury will be in the pulpit from time to time and it is hoped that our own people at least will be in their places. We invite our friends to worship with us when possible.

Forty-two at prayer meeting last Wednesday. Want fifty this week. Our service will be concluded in time for the young people to attend the rally at the Christian church.

The pastor's message for Sunday night will be, "How Close Is Christ To Life?"

Storm Causes Big Damage In State

Heavy Rains, Accompanied By High Winds, Results In Heavy Loss To Property

The storm which struck Boyle county also visited Mercer and Anderson counties, where several barns were blown down, Telephone and electric light lines in the two counties were demolished.

Former Lexington Patrolmen Accused Of Inducing Persons To Commit Perjury

Indictments were returned by the Fayette county grand jury Friday against H. L. Bruhlerfield and Ernest Westfall, until Thursday members of the Fayette county police force, charged with malfeasance in office.

The two officers, who submitted their resignations to County Judge W. E. According to the grand jury, the conduct of the officers in arranging these crimes was to obtain a record for arrests and convictions.

After it had become known that the indictments were returned, Bruhlerfield and Westfall went to the office of Sheriff J. Porter Land and surrendered. They were released under bond of $1,000 each.

Several specific instances were cited by the grand jury where the officers hired persons to induce other persons to commit robberies. According to the grand jury report, the officers were told what time the robberies would occur and were on hand to arrest the offenders. Several cases are pending in which sentences as a result of this arrangement, the report said.

NICHOLAS MAN HELD FOR ATTEMPTED HOLD UP IN SCOTT COUNTY

Hobert Hardin Is Charged With Attempting To Rob Filling Station Sunday

TWO WOMEN ARE HELD

An attempted holdup of the Black Cat filling station and restaurant on the Dixie highway 11 miles north of Georgetown in Scott county early Sunday morning resulted in the arrest of Hobert Hardin, of Nicholas county, and two women, one of them sixteen years old.

The alleged robber was foiled in his attempt when Marcus Hayden, cooperator with his father, Orph Hayden, of the filling station, jumped up behind Hardin and grappled with him as the latter pulled a pistol from his pocket and attempted to shoot Hayden in the back.

Hardin had gone into the restaurant and ordered sandwiches from a clerk. As Hayden entered the restaurant, he saw Hardin take the gun from his pocket and put it under his coat.

The two men scuffled while the clerk attempted to wrest the gun from Hardin. The girl was found in grabbing the weapon just as June Crupper, 16, of Georgetown, who late part as an ally of Hardin in the crime, was about to flee. Deputy sheriff and Scott county officers were called to the scene. Hardin, the Crupper girl and a woman who gave her name as Hazel Jenkins, of Indiana, who was found in Hardin's automobile, were all lodged in jail at Georgetown.

The girl told officers that her home was in Cynthiana and that she had "been going around" with Hardin and the Jenkins woman for about two weeks. Hardin, officers said, identified prison records in Kentucky. Ohio and Indiana.

Hardin is about about 40 years old and was reared in the county. He is also one of the last to be left behind and Mrs. Vest Bowles, of this county.
