

A Degrading Spectacle.

During the degrading spectacle of the public hanging at Marshall last week, a crowd of spectators to be long gone from the scene of the execution. It is to be presumed, for the sadistic details of such a exhibition.

W. O. Bonders and Family

W. O. Bonders and family left for Lexington to make their home in the city. Mr. Bonders is in connection with the business of the city.

Mr. T. J. Myers

Mr. T. J. Myers returned from his trip to the city. He was accompanied by his family and returned to his home in the city.

Several hundred persons

Several hundred persons were expected to attend the meeting. The meeting was held in the city and was attended by a large number of people.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.

Mr. J. M. Bonders

Mr. J. M. Bonders is in the city. He is in connection with the business of the city and is attending to his duties.