BRIGHT ISLE OF REST

(Thomas Moore)

How dear to me the hour when daylight dies,

And sunlight melt along the silvery sea,

For then sweet dreams of other days arise

And memory breathes her vesper sigh to thee.

And as I watch the line of light that plays

Along the smooth wave toward the burning west,

I long to tread that golden path of rays,

And think twould lead to some bright isle of rest.

Last year's amp taxes were paid on more than 125,000,000,000 cigarettes.
