THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN PLATFORMS ARE SO NEARLY SIMILAR ON A NUMBER OF MAJOR POINTS THAT LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR CHANDLER HAS CHARGED THAT JUDGE SWOPE "SWIPED" HIS PLATFORM. MR. CHANDLER ENUNCIATED HIS PLATFORM IN THE PRIMARY. PROMISES, HOWEVER, ARE VALUABLE ONLY IF THEY ARE FULFILLED. THERE WILL CERTAINLY BE A DEMO-CRATIC MAJORITY IN BOTH HOUSES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN FRANKFORT. MR. CHANDLER WILL HAVE A COMPLETE DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION AND IS NOT TIED UP WITH ANY PROMISES TO RETURN TO BI-PARTISANISM. HE, THEREFORE, CAN ACCOMPLISH HIS PROGRAM WHILE JUDGE SWOPE WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH ANYTHING IN FRANKFORT.

Promises and Accomplishment

End Uncertainty

The defeat of Mr. Chandler for Governor would inbusiness and handicaps all progressive activity in the Commonwealth. Split responsibility in the era of Samp-sonism or bi-partisanship resulted in job bartering in the Legislature, ripper bills, forcible ousters, many suit testing the Governor's acts and authority and a general deadlock preventing constructive action.

A Popular Ticket

Mr. Chandler and his associates on the Democratic ticket were nominated by the people in a Democrati primary. They are known throughout the State. Mr. Chandler and the nominee for Lieutenant Governor, usually referred to as the banner bearer's running mate, are familiarly known as "Happy and Keen." All nominees are able and well-known Kentuckians and their election will result from a popular outpouring of public sentiment which will inspire them and enable them to render better public service.

Primary Elections

The Democratic Party complied with the compulsory primary law enacted by the General Assembly of Kentucky. The Republican Party as the result of the efforts of national fixers trying to undermine President Roose velt called a convention and made "recommendations.

This nullified the primary election law.

Champion Of Labor

The Kentucky State Federation of Labor endorsed Mr. Chandler at its State convention in Frankfort. The four railroad brotherhoods have endorsed his candidacy. United Mine Workers of America are supporting him. John L. Lewis, outstanding national labor leader, will vitik Kentucky in his behalf.

Support The President

President Franklin D. Roosevelt is looking to Ken-President Franklin D. Roosevelt is looking to Ken-tucky to endorse his program. The eyes of the Nation are turned toward this State and the defeat of Mr. Chandler will be interpreted nationally as a repudiation of Roosevelt just when recovery is well under way.

Save By Economy

Mr. Chandler has estimated that millions can be saved by economy and through reorganization of the State Government along the lines suggested by auditors who studied the State's administrative structure. Proprity owners, taxpapers and all interested in business of any kind will be assisted by such an economical government as he will give.

Support For Schools

Mr. Chandler is in favor of a $12 per capita for the schools of Kentucky. He is pledged to free textbooks for the public school children. He advocates reasonable salaries for teachers and elimination of publics from the schools. On the tidet with him in # Inpulies from the schools. On the tidet with him in # Inpulies from the Superintendent of Public Instruction, one of the out-standing educators of Kentucky.

Friend Of The Farmer

Farmers are supporting the Democratic ticket be-cause of their interest in seeing the Roosevelt program for keeping up prices of farm products contillued. They also feel that in Senator Garth Ferguson, who has done so much to make the State Fair a great institution, they have a true friend in the candidate for Commissi

Repeal The Sales Tax

Mr. Chandler has fought the sales tax from the time it first was proposed in the Legislature. He stands now
